'13-C. Joint Select Committee to Review Implementation of the Auto Emissions Testing Program. There is established the Joint Select Committee to Review Implementation of the Auto Emissions Testing Program. Ten House members are appointed by the Speaker of the House. Three Senate members are appointed by the President of the Senate. Membership on the committee must be offered first to those who previously served on the committee during the 116th Legislature. The first-named Senate member is the Senate chair. The first-named House member is the House chair. The committee shall review the implementation of the auto emissions testing program and consider recommendations to improve or change the program. The committee shall report all recommendations it determines appropriate regarding the auto emissions testing program. The committee may recommend abolition of the committee in advance of the conclusion of the 117th Legislature if the committee determines it has concluded its work.'
