HOUSE AMENDMENT ", to H.P. 1093, L.D. 1536

E. Each standard must be clear and specific.

F. Standards must be defined grade-by-grade in a framework that provides effective guidance to all participants in the educational system.

G. The standards must facilitate a student's transition from one school to another within the State.

H. The standards may not attempt to cover everything to be taught but must focus on what is essential for students to learn.

I. The standards must be rigorous, challenging and competitive with those that prevail in other states and societies.

J. The standards must both motivate and measure student performance.

K. Content standards must define the knowledge and skills essential to each discipline.

L. Performance standards must specify the level of competence necessary to measure attainment of the content standards.

M. Standards must include multiple performance levels.

N. Standards must combine both knowledge and skills without pursuing one at the expense of the other.

O. Standards may illustrate, but not dictate, the methods by which material is to be taught, except that the use of phonics is required.

P. The standards must be written clearly enough that both parents and teachers understand what is expected of students and can use the standards as a practical means of measuring progress.

Q. The standards must include accommodations and 44 modifications for students with special needs.

R. The content standards enumerated in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 6209, subsection 2 must be limited to English language arts, including phonics; mathemathics; science and technology; and social studies.
