REVENUES

6 Other Funds $80,000 $80,000

The Department of Human Services will incur additional costs to contract for volunteer community service activities. This bill includes Federal Expenditure Fund allocations of $80,000 annually in fiscal years 1997-98 and 1998-99 to support the additional costs to the department in the event local, nonstate-administered funds are certified as available to provide the required state match.

This bill also includes base Other Special Revenue allocations of $500 annually in fiscal years 1997-98 and 1998-99, to authorize the expenditure of funds on an independent evaluation study if funding from an outside source or foundation becomes available.

The Department of Human Services will also incur some minor additional costs to seek approval to waive certain provisions of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act. These costs can be absorbed within the department's existing budgeted resources.'

This amendment adds a requirement that nonprofit agencies assisting in the creation, administration and supervision of volunteer community placements for current or former food stamp recipients also provide volunteer placement services and that they be paid on a contract basis based on the volunteer placements completed.

The amendment also replaces the provision requiring the Department of Human Services to identify and locate persons who lose food stamp eligibility and to evaluate the impact of those lost benefits. It adds a requirement that the department, to the extent feasible, identify and locate those persons. It authorizes the department to set up a dedicated account for receiving public and private funds to be used for evaluation purposes. It also adds a fiscal note to the bill.
