| 16 | This amendment reduces the total funding authorized for the children's Medicaid expansion and the prescription drug benefit         |
| 18 | by $3,264,237 and $9,459,340 in fiscal years 1997-98 and 1998-99, respectively. The amount of state funding authorized is reduced |
| 20 | by $1,327,775 and $3,739,032 in fiscal years 1997-98 and 1998-99, respectively. There are no changes in the proposed language     |
| 22 | contained in the bill as amended, however, that would reduce the projected cost of the bill.  |
| 24 | Due to the entitlement nature of these programs, it can not   |
| 26 | be certified that the reduced funding levels will be sufficientto meet projected program costs.                                 |

| 30 | SUMMARY   |
| 32 | This amendment reduces the total funding authorized for the children's Medicaid expansion because of revised assumptions            |
| 34 | regarding private insurance coverage among children and programutilization. It decreases new staff required by the Department   |
| 36 | of Human Services to 17 new staff.  |
