HOUSE AMENDMENT

HOUSE AMENDMENT "K" to COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to H.P. 1397, resulting from allowing one law enforcement officer to retire under the provisions of a special retirement plan with more favorable retirement provisions. Also included are the costs related to the increase in the normal cost component of the employer contribution rate.'

Further amend the amendment by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.

FISCAL NOTE

This amendment will have no net effect on General Fund appropriations and revenue and a balanced budget is maintained for fiscal year 1997-98 and fiscal year 1998-99.

This amendment will increase the Highway Fund cost of the bill by $22,806 in fiscal year 1998-99.

SUMMARY

Under current law, state employees, including state police officers, hired after August 31, 1984 are eligible for retirement benefits upon the completion of 25 years of creditable service and attainment of 55 years of age. State employees hired before September 1, 1984 are eligible for retirement benefits upon the completion of 20 years of creditable service, with no age restrictions.

This amendment changes the cutoff date for eligibility of retirement benefits after 20 years of creditable service for state police officers to September 16, 1984. The purpose of this amendment is to give members of the Maine State Police 38th Training Troop the same benefits that were available when applications were being accepted for that class. Members of the 38th Training Troop were well through the application process but were not officially hired until September 3, 1984, 2 days after the law imposing the new 25 years of service and 55 years of age requirement took effect.

6 This amendment also provides that the Maine State Retirement System retirement benefit of Maine State Police Chief David McPherson must be calculated under the requirements of the so-called "25/50 special retirement plan" that Sergeant McPherson was covered by when he began law enforcement service as a forest ranger.
