MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY

at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library

http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied (searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

119th MAINE LEGISLATURE

FIRST REGULAR SESSION-1999

Legislative Document

No. 1854

H.P. 1293

House of Representatives, March 16, 1999

An Act to Require Posting of Regulations on Public Lands.

Reference to the Committee on Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry suggested and ordered printed.

OSEPH W. MAYO, Clerk

Presented by Representative JOY of Crystal. Cosponsored by Representatives: CAMPBELL of Holden, GERRY of Auburn, MACK of Standish, MENDROS of Lewiston.

State, may cause copies of sections or parts of sections of this chapter and of other laws of the State relating to the administration of public lands to be printed and freely distributed. The bureau may prepare tracts or circulars of information on the administration of public lands, which must be available for distribution; and  6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime. I and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the		Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:
5. Distribution of information. At the expense of the State, may cause copies of sections or parts of sections of this chapter and of other laws of the State relating to the administration of public lands to be printed and freely distributed. The bureau may prepare tracts or circulars of information on the administration of public lands, which must be available for distribution; and  6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer.  Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime, and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	2	Con 1 12 MDCA $1902 out $85 and 6 an aventage by DI 1007 of
State, may cause copies of sections or parts of sections of this chapter and of other laws of the State relating to the administration of public lands to be printed and freely distributed. The bureau may prepare tracts or circulars of information on the administration of public lands, which must be available for distribution; and  6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and or monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime.; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	4	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · administration of public lands to be printed and freely distributed. The bureau may prepare tracts or circulars of information on the administration of public lands, which must be available for distribution; and  6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime. and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	6	5. Distribution of information. At the expense of the State, may cause copies of sections or parts of sections of this information on the administration of public lands, which must be available for distribution; and  6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  30 All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II.  These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crimer, and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	8	chapter and of other laws of the State relating to the administration of public lands to be printed and freely
6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crimer; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	10	distributed. The bureau may prepare tracts or circulars of information on the administration of public lands, which must be enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:  A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime-; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	12	available for distribution; and
A. For the protection and preservation of state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime, and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  T. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	14	6. Rules. From time to time shall adopt, amend, repeal and enforce reasonable rules necessary to carry out the duties historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands;  B. For the protection and safety of the public; and  C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime, and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	16	assigned to it, including, but not limited to, rules:
22 B. For the protection and safety of the public; and 24 C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon. 28 Mall rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. 32 These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. 34 Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crimer; and 36  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read: 40  Property. If the use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	18
C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime*; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	20 expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II. These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime, and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	22	B. For the protection and safety of the public; and lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of monuments thereon.  All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime*; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	24	C. For observance of the conditions and restrictions, expressed in deeds of trust or otherwise, of the state
All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II.  These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer. Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime. and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.		parks, historic sites, submerged lands, public reserved lands and nonreserved public lands of the State and of procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II.  These rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer.  Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	28	monuments thereon.
hearings, may be enforced by any law enforcement officer.  Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime; and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	30	All rules of the bureau must be adopted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter II.
Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime. and  Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	32	•
Sec. 2. 12 MRSA §1803, sub-§7 is enacted to read:  7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	34	Violation of any such rules, except those related to the conduct of public hearings, is a Class E crime+; and
7. Restrictions on use of or access to certain state  40 property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	36
property. If the use of or access to property under the jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	38
jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at accepted points of entry to the property that specifically describe the restriction of use or access.	40
describe the restriction of use or access.		jurisdiction of the bureau is restricted, shall post signs at 42
	44

SUMMARY

This bill requires the Bureau of Parks and Lands to post signs that specifically detail any restrictions on use or access, such as "no hunting" or "no fishing," that the bureau has placed on a park, historic site, public reserved land or nonreserved public land.

46

48