12 In addition to their legislative duties, Legislators may engage in employment or professional or business activities to support themselves and their families in order to maintain 14 continuity of professional or business activity, as long as the 16 activity does not conflict with specific provisions of this subchapter. Legislators also may maintain investments as long as 18 those investments do not conflict with specific provisions of this subchapter. This subchapter does not prevent a Legislator 20 from accepting other employment or following any pursuit that does not interfere with the full and faithful discharge of the 22 Legislator's duties to this State.

24 1. Use of position. A Legislator may not use the Legislator's public position or office to obtain financial gain 26 or anything of value for the private benefit of the Legislator, the Legislator's immediate family or an organization with which 28 the Legislator is associated.

30 2. Offer or receipt of anything of value prohibited. A person may not offer or give to a Legislator, directly or 32 indirectly, and a Legislator may not solicit or accept from any person, directly or indirectly, anything of value if it could 34 reasonably be:

- 36 A. Expected to influence the Legislator's vote, official actions or judgment; or
- B. Considered as a reward for any official action or 40 inaction on the part of the Legislator.

3. Misuse of information. A Legislator may not intentionally use or disclose information gained through that Legislator's official position or activities that could result in the receipt of anything of value by the Legislator, the Legislator's immediate family or any other person associated with the Legislator if the information has not been communicated to the public or is not public information.

•	4. Abuse of office. A Legislator may not use or attempt to
2	use the Legislator's public position to influence or gain
4	unlawful benefits, advantages or privileges for the Legislator or others.
б	5. Representation before state agency or state employee. A Legislator may not represent a person before a state agency or
8	authority for compensation or represent an employee of a state
10	agency or authority, except:
	A. When the Legislator is an attorney or other professional 12	person engaged in professional conduct; or
14	B. At an open hearing.
16	This subsection does not apply to representation by a Legislator acting in that Legislator's official capacity.
18	6. Contract with governmental agency or department. A
20	Legislator or business with which a Legislator is associated may not enter into any contract with the State or an agency of the 22	State that is to be paid out of governmental funds unless that
24	contract has been awarded through a process of public notice and competitive bidding.
41	competitive bluaring.
26	7. Unlawful compensation. A Legislator may not directly or
2.0	indirectly ask for, give, receive or agree to receive any
28	compensation, gift, reward or gratuity from a source except the State for performing, omitting or deferring the performance of
30	any official duty unless otherwise authorized by law.
32	8. Prohibitions; former Legislators. Except as provided in 34	subsection 5, for 12 months following the date on which an individual ceases to be a Legislator, that individual may not
-	make, on behalf of any person other than a governmental entity,
36	any formal or informal appearance before or negotiate with any 38	officer, member or employee of a state agency or quasi-state agency with which that Legislator conducted official business as a Legislator.
40
42	9. Personal business. This section does not prohibit former Legislators from conducting personal business with the State.
44
46	§1014-B. Conflict of interest
τU	1. Conflict of interest prohibited. Except as provided in
48	subsection 2, a Legislator may not:
50
50	A. Take any official action substantially affecting a matter in which the Legislator, a member of the Legislator's maser in which the begablecory a member of the begiblater b immediate family or an organization with which the 2	Legislator is associated has a substantial financial interest; or 4

	B. Use the Legislator's office or position in a way that 6	produces a substantial benefit, directly or indirectly, for
-	the Legislator, a member of the Legislator's immediate
8	family or an organization with which the Legislator is
0	associated.
10
10	2. Exceptions. A Legislator may propose or act on 12	legislation, a rule or general policy, even though the 14	legislation, rule or general policy may affect the Legislator or
14	a member of the Legislator's immediate family or an organization
14	with which the Legislator is associated if:
16	with which the begistator is associated if.
10	> The legislation rule or policy proposed by or acted
18	A. The legislation, rule or policy proposed by or acted upon by a Legislator affects a whole class of similar 18
20	interests;
20	D. Maillan - Tanialakania international the internation
22	B. Neither a Legislator's interest nor the interest of a
22	member of the Legislator's immediate family nor the interest
2.4	of an organization with which the Legislator is associated
24	is significant when compared to all affected interests in
20	the class; and 26
2.0	C. The effect of the legislation, rule or policy proposed
28	by or acted upon by a Legislator on the interests of the
2.0	Legislator or of a member of the Legislator's immediate
30	family or of the related organization is neither
2.2	significantly greater nor significantly less than the effect
32	upon other members of the class,
2.4
34	3. Membership on board, authority or commission. It is not
•	a conflict of interest for a Legislator to serve on a public
36	board, authority or commission created by the Legislature as long as compensation is not paid to the Legislator other than that 38	allowed under the law establishing that board, authority or commission.
40
	4. Advisory opinions. A Legislator may request the 42	commission to provide an advisory opinion regarding the propriety of any matter to which the Legislator is or may become a party.
44
	The commission shall review a request for an advisory opinion and
46	may advise the Legislator making the request.
48	A. Requests for advisory opinions and advisory opinions must be in writing.

- B. At the request of the Legislator who requested an advisory opinion, the commission's deliberations and actions may be held in executive session and may not be open to the public.
- 6 C. It is prima facie evidence of intent to comply with this subchapter when a Legislator refers a matter to the 8 commission and abides by the commission's advisory opinion.
- 10D. The commission may authorize the executive director ofthe commission, in consultation with the Attorney General,to act in its stead when delay is of substantialinconvenience or detriment to the requesting party. At theearliest opportunity thereafter, the commission shallconsider the advice given by the executive director andratify that advice, as appropriate.
- E. A member of the commission or an employee hired pursuant to section 1002, subsection 5 may not make public the identity of the individual requesting an advisory opinion or of individuals or organizations mentioned in the opinion.
- F. A copy of the advisory opinion must be sent to the Legislator concerned. A copy also must be sent to the presiding officer of the body of the Legislature of which the Legislator is a member.
- 28 §1014-C. Complaints

22

40

- 1. Request for investigation by individuals. Any person, organization or governmental body may submit a written complaint under oath to the commission that states the name of any person alleged to have committed a violation of this subchapter and the manner in which that violation has occurred.
- A. If the commission determines that a complaint under this subsection alleges facts sufficient to constitute a violation of this subchapter, it may investigate the alleged violation.
- B. If the commission determines that a complaint under this subsection does not allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of this subchapter, it must dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and the subject of the complaint.
- 46C. If the commission determines that a complaint under thissubsection was brought for harassment purposes, thecommission may so state.

	2. Request for investigation by Legislator. A Legislator
2	may request the commission to make an investigation of that Legislator's own conduct or of allegations made by other persons 4	as to the Legislator's conduct. The request must be written and include detailed reasons for the request.
6
0	3. Investigation initiated by commission. When the
8	commission receives information that makes allegations sufficient to constitute a violation of this subchapter:
10	to constitute a violation of this subchapter.
TO	A. If a complaint under this section has not been filed,
12	the commission may make upon its own motion a written complaint stating the name of the Legislator who is alleged 14	to have committed a violation of this subchapter and setting forth the particulars of the violation in accordance with 16	the information received by the commission; or 18	B. If a complaint under this section has been filed and the commission finds probable cause to believe that a violation 20	of this subchapter has occurred, other than one contained in the complaint, the commission may amend the complaint upon 22	its own motion to include that violation.
24	A Nation to subject of complaint Within 10 down of 24	4. Notice to subject of complaint. Within 10 days of
26	receipt of a complaint under this section or the initiation of a complaint by the commission on its own motion, the commission
20	must forward a copy of the complaint, a copy of the applicable
28	statutes and a statement enumerating the sources of information
20	upon which the complaint is based to the subject of that
30	complaint. An investigation under subsection 5 may not be
00	initiated until the subject of the complaint has been notified.
32
	5. Investigations. The commission has the authority
34	through its chair or any member designated by the chair to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and compel the production of 36	books, records, papers, documents, correspondence and other material and records that the commission considers relevant.
38
4.0	A. The commission shall subpoena witnesses requested by a
40	complainant or the subject of a complaint.
42	D The commission may and a best many to be taken by 42	B. The commission may order testimony to be taken by deposition before any individual who is designated by the
44	commission and may administer oaths, compel testimony and
T T	order the production of evidence.
46
-	C. The State, its agencies and instrumentalities shall 48	furnish to the commission any information, records or documents that the commission designates as being necessary
50	for the exercise of its functions and duties.

2	D. If any person refuses to obey an order or subpoena from the commission, the Superior Court, upon application by the
4	commission, has jurisdiction and authority to require compliance with the order or subpoena.
6
8	6. Probable cause of violation. The commission shall determine whether probable cause of a violation of this subchapter exists at the conclusion of its investigation.
10
12	A. If the commission determines that probable cause of a violation of this subchapter does not exist, it shall immediately send written notice of that determination,
14	supported by findings of fact and conclusions, to the complainant and the subject of the complaint.
18	B. If the commission determines that probable cause of a violation of this subchapter exists, it shall prepare
20	preliminary findings of fact and conclusions that must contain, but are not limited to:
22	(1) An order setting a date for a hearing before the commission to determine whether a violation of this
24	subchapter has occurred.
26	(a) That order must be served upon the subject of the complaint by certified mail.
28
30	(b) A hearing ordered under this subparagraph must take place within 30 days of the date it is ordered unless the subject of the complaint
32	petitions for and the commission consents to a later date.
34
36	(c) Prior to any hearing ordered under this subparagraph, the subject of the complaint is entitled to full disclosure of all information
38	that will be presented to the commission for its
40	consideration. The disclosure must include the opportunity to interview any witness who will testify at the hearing. Any interviews must be
42	conducted at a time approved by the commission before the date of the hearing.
44
46	(d) The commission shall inform the subject of a complaint or the subject's counsel of any exculpatory evidence in the possession of the
48	commission.

7. Hearings. The subject of a complaint has the right to a 2 hearing if requested.

4	A. All witnesses at a hearing under this subsection are subject to cross-examination. A witness at an investigation 6	or hearing, subject to rules adopted by the commission under section 1016-G, is entitled to a copy of that witness's
8	testimony when that testimony becomes relevant to a subsequent investigation, hearing or criminal proceeding.
10
	B. All witnesses at a hearing under this subsection must be 12	sworn. The commission may sequester witnesses as necessary. The commission is not bound by the strict rules 14	of evidence, but its findings and conclusions must be based upon clear and convincing evidence.
16
	C. Any person whose name is mentioned in an investigation
18	or hearing under this subsection and who believes that
10	testimony has been given that adversely affects that person
20	has the right to testify in that proceeding or, at the 20	discretion of the commission and under circumstances the
22	commission determines appropriate to protect the rights of
66	the subject of the complaint under inquiry, to file a
24	statement of fact under oath relating solely to the adverse
64	testimony that has been given or about facts relevant to

SUMMARY

16 This bill amends the governmental ethics laws. The bill defines "anything of value," "associated" and "employer of another." The bill also amends the definition of "gift" by 18 excluding informational material, a publication and a meal, under 20 certain circumstances, from the definition of "gifts." The bill defines "information program," "organization" and "reportable liability." The bill also amplifies the standards of conduct 22 expected from a Legislator and clarifies what is considered a conflict of interest, how complaints are to be filed and handled, 24 what financial information must be disclosed by a Legislator, what is a reportable liability and for how long income statements 26 must be retained. The bill also states what constitutes a violation of the ethics laws. 28
