Sec. B-5. 37-B MRSA §703, sub-§2, as enacted by PL 1983, c.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT " to H.P. 1656, L.D. 2164

- 2. Disaster. "Disaster" means the occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury or loss of life or property resulting from any natural or man-made cause, including, but not limited to, fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, oil spill or other water contamination requiring emergency action to avert danger or damage, epidemic, extreme public health emergency pursuant to Title 22, section 802, subsection 2-A, air contamination, blight, drought, critical material shortage, infestation, explosion, riot or hostile military or paramilitary action.
 - Sec. B-6. Repeal. This Act is repealed October 31, 2003.
- Further amend the bill by inserting at the end before the summary the following:

FISCAL NOTE

The additional costs associated with establishing a system to address extreme public health emergencies and exercising emergency powers upon declaration of an extreme public health emergency can be absorbed by the Bureau of Health in the Department of Human Services utilizing existing budgeted resources.

The additional costs associated with the changes to public health emergency provisions can be absorbed by the Judicial Department utilizing existing budgeted resources.'

SUMMARY

This amendment is one of the reports of the Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary and the Joint Standing Committee on Health and Human Services. The amendment replaces the bill. It enacts on a temporary basis a new class of emergency, an extreme public health emergency. The amendment contains the following provisions.

1. It establishes a system for the Department of Human Services to address extreme public health emergencies. It allows the department to order, as necessary to protect the public health and safety, isolation, quarantine and prescribed care, which may consist of examination, vaccination, medical care or treatment. It contains exceptions for persons who are at risk of an adverse reaction to the prescribed care and for persons who demonstrate a sincere religious or conscientious objection to the prescribed care. It provides for judicial review, with court-appointed counsel for the indigent, as soon as reasonably
