COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to S.P. 133, L.D. 396, Bill, "An Act To Allow Dealers of Manufactured Housing To Install Oil Tanks"

Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and before the summary and inserting in its place the following:

Sec. 1. 32 MRSA §2401, as amended by PL 2001, c. 633, §2, is further amended by adding at the end 2 new paragraphs to read:

The board may issue a joint limited license to a manufactured housing dealer, as defined and licensed in Title 10, chapter 951, and an individual employee of the dealer who is named as the corecipient of the joint limited license for the limited purpose of allowing the employee to install outside residential heating oil tanks at manufactured housing, as defined in Title 10, section 9002, subsection 7, paragraph A, that has been sold by the dealer. Requirements for attaining the joint limited license must include training, of at least 4 hours at an education course approved by the board, completed by the employee named as the corecipient of the joint limited license, for proper installation of an outside oil tank. The joint limited license is revoked upon termination of the employee named as the corecipient of the joint limited license from the employ of the dealer.

The board may issue a joint limited license to the owner of a manufactured housing dealership for the limited purpose of

Fiscal Detail and Notes

This bill includes an Other Special Revenue Fund allocation of $2,000 in fiscal year 2003-04 for the Office of Licensing and Registration within the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation for the Oil and Solid Fuel Board for the costs associated with rulemaking. The Office of Licensing and Registration also estimates an increase in dedicated revenue to the Board of $12,500 in fiscal year 2004-05 as a result of the biennial licensing fees associated with issuing the additional licenses to manufactured housing dealers.
