based on equivalent hours. The proposal must include a written statement explaining the reason for the request. The commissioner may approve a proposal for implementation in school year 2009-2010 if the commissioner determines that the proposal complies with Title 20-A, section 4801, subsection 1-A.

A school board granted permission for an alternative school calendar under this section may not continue an alternative school calendar beyond the 2009-2010 school year unless a proposal is submitted to the commissioner, reviewed and approved in accordance with rules adopted under Title 20-A, section 4801, subsection 1-A. The commissioner shall provisionally adopt rules to implement this Act no later than December 1, 2009.'

Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.

29 SUMMARY

This amendment is the majority report of the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs. It establishes criteria required for the approval of an alternative school calendar. It directs the Commissioner of Education to provisionally adopt rules no later than December 1, 2009. It authorizes the commissioner to approve requests for the school year 2009-2010 prior to adoption of the rules as long as statutory criteria are met. It also allows the commissioner to authorize a school operating on a calendar based on days to substitute equivalent hours for days for a limited time period upon application of the school board.
