Fiscal Detail and Notes

This legislation may increase the total state and local costs of major capital school construction projects and local repair projects with a cost of $50,000 or more if the prevailing wage and benefits as determined by the Department of Labor pursuant to Title 26, §1308 is higher than wages and benefits currently being paid by school administrative units for construction projects. The impact of this legislation on the State and individual school administrative units can not be determined at this time.
