MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib

Reproduced from electronic originals (may include minor formatting differences from printed original)

125th MAINE LEGISLATURE

FIRST REGULAR SESSION-2011

Legislative Document

No. 1353

S.P. 416

In Senate, March 30, 2011

An Act To Amend the Discovery Rule Laws

Reference to the Committee on Judiciary suggested and ordered printed.

Joseph G. Carleton Jr.
JOSEPH G. CARLETON, JR.
Secretary of the Senate

Presented by Senator BARTLETT of Cumberland.

1	Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:
2	Sec. 1. 14 MRSA §817 is enacted to read:
3 4	§817. Accrual of action in defective or unreasonably dangerous goods or products claim
5	In an action brought for damages resulting from defective or unreasonably dangerous goods or products pursuant to section 221, the cause of action accrues when the claimant
7 8	suffers a personal injury sufficient to cause actual loss, damage or suffering. When a defective good or product apply not have reasonably been discovered by the
9 10	When a defective good or product could not have reasonably been discovered by the claimant until a later triggering event, the cause of action accrues when the claimant knew or should have known of the defective good or product.
11	SUMMARY
12 13 14 15	This bill codifies the discovery rule for product liability cases to specify that the cause of action, for statute of limitation purposes, accrues when a person suffers a personal injury due to a defective product or good or, if the defect was not reasonably discoverable, when the person knew or should have known of the defective good or product.