MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib

Reproduced from electronic originals (may include minor formatting differences from printed original)

126th MAINE LEGISLATURE

FIRST REGULAR SESSION-2013

Legislative Document

No. 1065

H.P. 758

House of Representatives, March 19, 2013

An Act Regarding Patient-directed Care at the End of Life

Reference to the Committee on Health and Human Services suggested and ordered printed.

Millient M. Macfarland MILLICENT M. MacFARLAND Clerk

Presented by Representative BROOKS of Winterport.

Cosponsored by Senator VALENTINO of York and Representatives: BEAVERS of South Berwick, CHENETTE of Saco, FARNSWORTH of

Portland, HAYES of Buckfield, NADEAU of Winslow, RUSSELL of Portland, SCHNECK of

Bangor, WELSH of Rockport.

following terms have the following meanings.  A. "End-of-life care document" means a document signed by a patient that meets the requirements of subsection 3.  B. "Medical director" means a licensed physician who oversees the medical components of hospice services and serves on the interdisciplinary team, as defined in Title 22, section 8621, subsection 12, for the patient.  C. "Palliative care" means care that eases or relieves pain or discomfort.  D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician.  E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to accept curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.	Sec. 1. 24 MRSA §2908 is enacted to read:
following terms have the following meanings.  A. "End-of-life care document" means a document signed by a patient that meets the requirements of subsection 3.  B. "Medical director" means a licensed physician who oversees the medical components of hospice services and serves on the interdisciplinary team, as defined in Title 22, section 8621, subsection 12, for the patient.  C. "Palliative care" means care that eases or relieves pain or discomfort.  D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician than may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	2908. Patient-directed care at the end of life requirements of subsection 3.  B. "Medical director" means a licensed physician who oversees the medica components of hospice services and serves on the interdisciplinary team, as defined in Title 22, section 8621, subsection 12, for the patient.  C. "Palliative care" means care that eases or relieves pain or discomfort.  D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician.  E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to accept curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept acre that is ordered or delivered by the physician than may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the ollowing terms have the following meanings.
components of hospice services and serves on the interdisciplinary team, as defined in Title 22, section 8621, subsection 12, for the patient.  C. "Palliative care" means care that eases or relieves pain or discomfort.  D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician.  E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept palliative care; and (3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	A. "End-of-life care document" means a document signed by a patient that meets the requirements of subsection 3.
<ul> <li>D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician.</li> <li>E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.</li> <li>F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.</li> <li>2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.</li> <li>3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.</li> <li>A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.</li> <li>B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.</li> <li>4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in</li> </ul>	components of hospice services and serves on the interdisciplinary team, as defined the opinion of the person's physician.  E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.  A physician who signs a physician document in	C. "Palliative care" means care that eases or relieves pain or discomfort.
who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.  F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.  2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept palliative care; and (3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	D. "Patient" means a person who is terminally ill and has a limited life expectancy in the opinion of the person's physician.
<ol> <li>2. Agreement. A patient and physician may enter into an agreement for patient-directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.</li> <li>3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.</li> <li>A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:         <ol> <li>(1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care;</li> <li>(2) The decision to accept palliative care; and</li> <li>(3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.</li> </ol> </li> <li>B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.</li> </ol> <li>4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in</li>	E. "Physician" means the physician or medical director as defined in this subsection who provides care for the patient and who signs a physician document with regard to the patient.
directed end-of-life care by signing an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and a physician document in accordance with subsection 4.  3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and direct care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.  A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept palliative care; and (3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and lega obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	F. "Physician document" means a document signed by a physician that meets the requirements of subsection 4.
A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care: (2) The decision to accept palliative care; and (3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:  (1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care; (2) The decision to accept palliative care; and (3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	3. Choice and directive by patient. A patient may make choices for health care and irect care toward the end of the patient's life in accordance with this section.
<ul> <li>(2) The decision to accept palliative care; and</li> <li>(3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.</li> <li>B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.</li> <li>4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in</li> </ul>	A. The patient may sign an end-of-life care document that states that the patient has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient's physician and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:
<ul> <li>(3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.</li> <li>B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.</li> <li>4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in</li> </ul>	(1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care;
may hasten or bring about the patient's death.  B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	(2) The decision to accept palliative care; and to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.  4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in	(3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.
	B. The end-of-life care document must state that the patient is directing the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the companion physician document and in conformance with the professional and legal obligations of the physician.
	4. Commitment by physician. A physician who signs a physician document in coordance with this subsection may provide care in conformance with the physician

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

1

1 2	document for a patient who has signed an end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3.
3 4 5	A. The physician may sign a physician document that states that the physician has thoroughly discussed the patient's medical condition and options and choices for care with the patient and that the patient has made the following informed decisions:
6	(1) The decision to reject curative or life-extending care;
7	(2) The decision to accept palliative care; and
8 9	(3) The decision to accept care that is ordered or delivered by the physician that may hasten or bring about the patient's death.
10	B. The physician document must state:
11 12 13	(1) That the patient has directed the physician to provide care in conformance with the end-of-life care document and the professional and legal obligations of the physician; and
14 15	(2) That the physician is committed to provide care as directed by the end-of-life care document.
16 17 18 19 20 21	5. Immunity. A physician who has signed a physician document in accordance with subsection 4 with regard to a patient who has signed a companion end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and who provides care in accordance with both documents is not civilly or criminally liable for damages alleged to have been sustained by the patient nor for the death of the patient alleged to have occurred by reason of an act or omission in providing care in accordance with both documents.
22 23 24 25 26 27	6. Professional and licensure obligations. A physician who has signed a physician document in accordance with subsection 4 with regard to a patient who has signed a companion end-of-life care document in accordance with subsection 3 and who provides care in accordance with both documents is not subject to professional discipline under Title 32, chapters 36 and 48 for providing care to the patient in accordance with both documents.
28	SUMMARY
29 30 31 32 33 34 35	This bill authorizes a patient who is terminally ill and the patient's physician or the medical director of the patient's hospice care provider to sign companion documents that will guide the provision of health care to the patient and the provision of care at the end of life. The companion documents establish the choices and directives of the patient and the responsibilities of the physician or medical director. This bill shields physicians and medical directors from liability or disciplinary sanctions so that the physicians and medical directors may provide care in conformance with patients' choices and directives.