In determining the basic term of imprisonment as the first step in the sentencing process, the court shall select a term of at least 20 years. The court shall also impose as part of the sentence a period of supervised release to immediately follow that definite term of imprisonment as mandated by section 1231.

20 SUMMARY

This bill implements the following Criminal Law Advisory Commission recommendations respecting the Maine Criminal Code.

- 1. The bill elevates to Class A crimes in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 208 those forms of bodily injury that result in serious permanent physical damage to a victim, while retaining as Class B crimes other forms of bodily injury.
- 2. The bill amends the definition of the term "public way" in Title 17-A, section 505 to cover public ways, including sidewalks, over which the public has a right to pass by foot and vehicle.
- 3. The bill amends Title 17-A, section 554 regarding endangering the welfare of a child by removing the requirement that the child victim be under 16 years of age and by adding the designation of the class of each crime to the appropriate paragraph.
- 4. The bill amends Title 17-A, section 1201 to specify that when a court sentences a person to a term of imprisonment for a sex offense followed by a period of supervised release, as authorized by Title 17-A, chapter 50, that person is not eligible for the imposition of a sentence alternative that includes a period of probation.
- 5. The bill repeals Title 17-A, section 1206, subsection 7-B regarding probation revocation hearings.

6. The bill amends Title 17-A, section 1231, subsection 6 regarding supervised release for sex offenders to make clear that, in the event the court revokes a period of supervised release and instead requires the person to serve time in prison, any remaining portion of the period of supervised release that is not required to be served in prison may not run during the time the person is in prison, and must resume after the person is released from prison.

7. The bill amends Title 17-A, section 1252, subsection 4-E regarding imprisonment for a conviction of gross sexual assault against a person under 12 years of age to stipulate that supervised release is required following the term of imprisonment.
