20 SUMMARY
This amendment requires an election official to post a paper copy of the results of an election as soon as practicable after the ballots are counted at the place or municipal office if there is a secure place at the voting place or municipal where the public may view the results even when the voting place or municipal closed. The amendment establishes this requirement in a separate section rather the section of law that requires the declaration by the warden of the results ballots are counted, as in the bill.	e voting oal office office is than in
