1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 4 MRSA §152, sub-§5-A is enacted to read:

3 5-A. Concurrent jurisdiction; exclusive, continuing jurisdiction. Except as 4 provided in paragraph A, original jurisdiction, concurrent with that of the Probate Court,
5 of actions for guardianship, adoption, change of name or other matters implicating
6 custody or other parental rights brought under Title 18-A.

7 A. The District Court has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction of any matter concerning 8 custody or other parental rights of a child, including but not limited to adoption, 9 divorce, parental rights and responsibilities, grandparents rights, protective custody,
10 change of name, guardianship, paternity, termination of parental rights and protection 11 from abuse or harassment, if:

12 (1) An interim or final order concerning the child was entered in the District
13 Court and remains in effect;

14 (2) Proceedings seeking an order under subparagraph (1) are pending in the 15 District Court; or

16 (3) A matter has been removed to the District Court from the Probate Court
17 pursuant to section 251-A, subsection 3.

18 B. The District Court presiding over any matter concerning custody or other parental 19 rights of a minor child shall require all parties to disclose whether they have 20 knowledge of any interim or final order then in effect concerning custody or other 21 parental rights of the minor child, any proceeding to seek such an order or other 22 related actions currently filed or pending before any court of this or another state, 23 including before a Probate Court. If the District Court becomes aware that it has 24 exclusive jurisdiction in such a matter, it shall notify the Probate Court and take all 25 appropriate action to facilitate a transfer of the matter from the Probate Court.

26 Sec. 2. 4 MRSA §251 is amended to read:

27 §251. General jurisdiction

28 Each judge may take the probate of wills and grant letters testamentary or of 29 administration on the estates of all deceased persons who, at the time of their death, 30 where inhabitants or residents of ~~his~~ the judge's county or who, not being residents of the 31 State, died leaving estate to be administered in ~~his~~ the judge's county, or whose estate is 32 afterwards found therein; and has jurisdiction of all matters relating to the settlement of 33 such estates. ~~He~~ A judge may grant leave to adopt children, change the names of persons, 34 appoint guardians for minors and others according to law; and has jurisdiction as to 35 persons under guardianship, and as to whatever else is conferred ~~on him~~ by law, except in 36 cases in which the District Court has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over a child
37 pursuant to section 152, subsection 5-A or matters that have been removed to the District
38 Court pursuant to section 251-A, subsection 3.

39 Sec. 3. 4 MRSA §251-A is enacted to read:

1 §251-A. Other proceedings involving parental rights; transfer of jurisdiction to
2 District Court

3 1. Disclosure of orders and proceedings. The judge of probate presiding over any 4 matter involving guardianship, adoption, change of name or other matters concerning 5 custody or other parental rights of a minor child shall require all parties to disclose 6 whether they have knowledge of any interim or final order then in effect concerning 7 custody or other parental rights of the minor child, any proceeding seeking such an order 8 or other related actions currently filed or pending before any court of this or another state.

9 2. Transfer to District Court. If in a matter before the Probate Court concerning a 10 child, a judge of probate becomes aware that the District Court may have issued an 11 interim or final order concerning the custody or other parental rights of a child, or may 12 have before the District Court pending proceedings seeking custody or other parental 13 rights of a child, the judge shall contact the District Court to determine whether the child
14 is under the exclusive, continuing jurisdiction of the District Court pursuant to section 15 152, subsection 5-A. If the judge of probate confirms that the District Court has such 16 jurisdiction, the judge of probate shall transfer the matter to the District Court.

17 3. Petition by party; rules. Upon petition by a party to a proceeding involving 18 guardianship, adoption, change of name or other matters concerning custody or other 19 parental rights of a minor child brought in the court of probate, the proceeding may be 20 removed to the District Court under such procedures as the Supreme Judicial Court may 21 by rule provide if any civil matter involving the minor child is pending or has been finally 22 adjudicated in the District Court.

23 Sec. 4. 18-A MRSA §1-701, sub-§(a), as enacted by PL 2001, c. 163, §1, is 24 amended to read:

25 (a). If a person desires to have that person's name changed, the person may petition 26 the judge of probate in the county where the person resides. If the person is a minor, the 27 person's legal custodian may petition in the person's behalf. If the person is a minor and 28 the District Court has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction regarding the minor pursuant to 29 Title 4, section 152, subsection 5-A, the proceeding must be filed in or transferred to the 30 District Court.

31 Sec. 5. 18-A MRSA §5-102, sub-§(a), as enacted by PL 1979, c. 540, §1, is 32 amended to read:

33 (a). The Subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court in matters 34 concerning minors as provided in Title 4, section 152, subsection 5-A, the court has 35 exclusive concurrent jurisdiction over guardianship proceedings and has jurisdiction over 36 protective proceedings to the extent provided in section 5-402.

37 Sec. 6. 18-A MRSA §9-103, as enacted by PL 1995, c. 694, Pt. C, §7 and affected
38 by Pt. E, §2, is amended to read:

1 Upon petition by a party to a proceeding involving guardianship, adoption, change of 2 name or other matters concerning custody or other parental rights of a minor child
3 brought in the court of probate, the proceeding may be removed to the District Court 4 under such procedures as the Supreme Judicial Court may by rule provide if any civil 5 matter involving the minor child is pending or has been finally adjudicated in the District
6 Court.
