STATE OF MAINE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
127TH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to H.P. 850, L.D. 1250, Bill, "An Act To Reform Public Charter Schools"

Amend the bill by striking out all of sections 3 and 4.

SUMMARY

This amendment is the minority report of the committee. The amendment strikes the following provisions in the bill:

1. The provisions that require that notice for a meeting of a governing board of a public charter school be posted on a publicly accessible portion of the public charter school's website at least 30 days before the meeting, that a governing board meeting be open to the public and that the governing board take accurate minutes of the meeting and post those minutes on a publicly accessible portion of the public charter school's website within 48 hours after adjournment of the meeting; and
2. The provision that prohibits a public charter school from accepting a gift or grant that is conditional upon the removal of a staff member or teacher of the public charter school.
