26 SUMMARY

27 This amendment deletes from the bill the proposed new crime of unlawful transfer of 28 long-term care and custody of a child and replaces it with amendments to the existing 29 crime of abandonment of a child, prohibiting substantially the same conduct. This 30 amendment adds to the crime of abandonment of a child a prohibition on placing a child 31 with or transferring the physical custody of a child to a nonrelative without court 32 approval. If the child is less than 6 years of age, the crime is a Class C crime and if the 33 child is less than 18 years of age, the crime is a Class D crime. This amendment creates 34 an affirmative defense that the placement or transfer of custody of the child is due to the 35 incarceration, military service, medical treatment or incapacity of the person and is 36 temporary and for a designated short-term period with a specific intent and time period 37 for the return of the child.

38 This amendment clarifies that a person is prohibited from advertising for the purpose 39 of finding a person to take into permanent custody a particular child; current law provides 40 that a person is prohibited from advertising for the purpose of finding a person to adopt a 41 child. This amendment removes from the provision in the bill prohibiting advertising the

2 $5,000. The bill provides an exemption from the advertising prohibitions for the 3 Department of Health and Human Services and licensed child-placing agencies, as well
