1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 2 MRSA c. 7 is enacted to read:

3 CHAPTER 7

4 AGENCIES

5 §201. Participation by agencies in legislative process

6 Upon the request of a joint standing committee of the Legislature or a study
7 commission or work group formed by legislative action, a commissioner or director of a 8 state agency or the commissioner's or director's designee shall appear before and 9 participate in the public hearings and work sessions of that committee, commission or 10 work group. The request to appear must be in writing and must specify the date and time
11 of the hearing or work session.

12 As used in this chapter, "state agency" means a state department, agency, office,
13 board or commission or a quasi-independent agency, board, commission, authority or 14 institution.

15 SUMMARY

16 This bill requires the commissioner or director of a state agency, which includes 17 executive branch departments and quasi-independent agencies, to appear before a joint 18 standing committee of the Legislature or a study commission or work group formed by 19 legislative action and to participate in the hearing and work sessions of that committee,
20 commission or work group. The committee, commission or work group must request the 21 attendance of the commissioner or director in writing and provide the date and time of the 22 hearing or work session.
