14 criminal charge; or

15 (3) Found not competent to stand trial with respect to a criminal charge;

29 acceptance of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or a verdict or finding of guilty, or of 30 the equivalent in a juvenile case, by a court of competent jurisdiction.

31 In the case of a deferred disposition, ~~unless the person is alleged to have committed one~~

35 the offenses listed in section 1023, subsection 4, paragraph B-1, that person may not 36 possess a firearm beginning at the start of the deferred disposition period.

37 For the purposes of this subsection, a person is deemed to have been found not criminally
38 responsible by reason of insanity upon the acceptance of a plea of not criminally
39 responsible by reason of insanity or a verdict or finding of not criminally responsible by 40 reason of insanity, or of the equivalent in a juvenile case, by a court of competent
41 jurisdiction.

1 Sec. 2. 15 MRSA §393, sub-§1-B, as enacted by PL 2015, c. 287, §5, is amended 2 to read:

3 1-B. Prohibition for domestic violence offenses. A person may not own, possess
4 or have under that person's control a firearm if that person:

5 A. Has been convicted of committing or found not criminally responsible by reason 6 of insanity of committing:

12 B. Has been adjudicated in this State or under the laws of the United States or any 13 other state to have engaged in conduct as a juvenile that, if committed by an adult, 14 would have been a disqualifying conviction under this subsection.

15 Except as provided in subsection 1-A, the prohibition created by this subsection for a 16 conviction or adjudication of an offense listed in paragraph A or B expires 5 years from 17 the date the person is finally discharged from the sentence imposed as a result of the 18 conviction or adjudication if that person has no subsequent criminal convictions during 19 that 5-year period. If a person is convicted of a subsequent crime within the 5-year 20 period, the 5-year period starts anew from the date of the subsequent conviction. In the 21 case of a deferred disposition, the 5-year period begins at the start of the deferred
22 disposition period. If, at the conclusion of the deferred disposition period, the court
23 grants the State's motion to allow a person to withdraw the plea and the State dismisses 24 the pending charging instrument with prejudice, the 5-year prohibition period terminates.

25 For the purposes of this subsection, a person is deemed to have been convicted or 26 adjudicated upon the acceptance of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or a verdict or 27 finding of guilty, or of the equivalent in a juvenile case, by a court of competent 28 jurisdiction.

29 For the purposes of this subsection, a person is deemed to have been found not criminally
30 responsible by reason of insanity upon the acceptance of a plea of not criminally
31 responsible by reason of insanity or a verdict or finding of not criminally responsible by 32 reason of insanity, or of the equivalent in a juvenile case, by a court of competent
33 jurisdiction.

34 The provisions of this subsection apply only to a person convicted, adjudicated or placed 35 on deferred disposition on or after the effective date of this subsection.

42 4-A. If the State pleads and proves that, at the time any crime, excluding murder,
43 under chapter 9, 11, 13 or 27; section 402-A, subsection 1, paragraph A; or section 752-A

1 or 752-C was committed, or an attempt of any such crime was committed, the defendant
2 had 2 or more prior convictions under chapter 9, 11, 13 or 27; section 402-A, subsection
3 1, paragraph A; or section 752-A or 752-C, or an attempt of any such crime was 4 committed, or for engaging in substantially similar conduct in another jurisdiction, the 5 sentencing class for the crime is one class higher than it would otherwise be. In the case
6 of a Class A crime, the sentencing class is not increased, but the prior record must be 7 given serious consideration by the court when imposing a sentence. Section 9-A governs 8 the use of prior convictions when determining a sentence, except that, for the purposes of 9 this subsection, for violations under chapter 11, the dates of prior convictions may have 10 occurred at any time. This subsection does not apply to section 210-A if the prior 11 convictions have already served to enhance the sentencing class under section 210-A, 12 subsection 1, paragraph C or any other offense in which prior convictions have already 13 served to enhance the sentencing class.

14 SUMMARY

15 This bill implements the recommendations of the Criminal Law Advisory 16 Commission to make amendments to the Maine Criminal Code and related statutes.
17 Specifically, the bill:

18 1. Amends the law on prohibited possession of firearms to remove a redundant
19 reference in the case of a deferred disposition;

20 2. Amends the law on prohibited possession of firearms as a result of a domestic 21 violence offense to add termination of the 5-year prohibition period if at the conclusion of 22 a deferred disposition period the court grants the State's motion to allow a person to 23 withdraw the plea and the State dismisses the pending charging instrument with 24 prejudice;

25 3. Adds penalties for possession of a firearm by a person designated as prohibited
26 pursuant to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 15, section 393, subsection 1, paragraphs F
27 to J and subsection 1-B. These prohibition provisions were added by Public Law 2015, 28 chapter 287, sections 3 and 5, but penalties for violations of them were not enacted. This 29 bill makes a violation of paragraphs F to J a Class D crime. It makes a violation of 30 subsection 1-B by a person at least 18 years of age a Class C crime;

31 4. Enacts a definition of "administration of juvenile justice" in Title 15, chapter 102 32 regarding the interception of wire and oral communications that is consistent with the 33 Maine Juvenile Code;

34 5. Amends the definition of "administration of criminal justice" as used in certain 35 laws regarding the interception of wire and oral communications by including under 36 administration of criminal justice activities under the Intelligence and Investigative 37 Record Information Act;

38 6. Amends the Class C sentencing provision for a person convicted of stalking who 39 has one or more prior convictions to clarify that although the court continues to have 40 discretion to impose any other authorized sentencing alternative, the court is required to 41 impose a sentencing alternative that includes a term of imprisonment of at least one year;

1 7. Amends the Class B sentencing provision for a person convicted of stalking who 2 has one or more prior convictions, at least one of which was for stalking 2 or more 3 specific persons that are members of an identifiable group, to require the court in 4 determining the basic term of imprisonment as the first step in the sentencing process to 5 select a term of at least 2 years; and

6 8. Strikes redundant provisions requiring the court, in imposing a sentencing 7 alternative for the crime of stalking, to consider whether the victim was being stalked by 8 the person being sentenced.

9 Current law provides that for the purpose of imposing a sentence for certain crimes, if 10 the defendant has 2 or more convictions for those crimes, the sentencing class for the 11 crime is one class higher. This bill provides that an attempt to commit such crimes also 12 results in a higher sentencing class.
