1 SUMMARY

2 This bill requires a court to sentence a person convicted of violating a protective 3 order or court-approved consent agreement, currently a Class D crime, to a minimum
4 term of imprisonment of 30 days. Subsequent convictions of violating a protective order 5 or court-approved consent agreement are subject to enhanced minimum sentences.

6 This bill also requires a court to sentence a person convicted of violating a protective 7 order through conduct that is reckless and that creates a substantial risk of death or 8 serious bodily injury to the plaintiff named in the protective order or who assaults the 9 plaintiff named in the protective order, currently a Class C crime, to a minimum term of 10 imprisonment of 2 years; subsequent convictions are subject to enhanced minimum 11 sentences.

12 This bill also creates the Class C crime of false claim, which occurs when a person 13 during a proceeding for a protection from abuse petition makes a false claim of abuse or 14 neglect or abandonment of a child or alleges sexual exploitation of a minor, sex
15 trafficking, aggravated sex trafficking or patronizing prostitution of a minor or person 16 with a mental disability and that claim or allegation is made for the purpose of gaining an 17 advantage in a divorce proceeding.
