32 SUMMARY

33 This bill makes several changes to the foreclosure mediation program.

34 First, it makes the mediation program mandatory for all parties when a plaintiff
35 commences an action for the foreclosure of an owner-occupied residential property of no
36 more than 4 units that is the primary residence of the owner-occupant.

1           Second, it requires the mediation to start not more than 90 days after the defendant
2 receives the foreclosure complaint. The bill requires the plaintiff to notify the Supreme
3 Judicial Court when the defendant has received the complaint, at which time the court
4 will refer the parties to mediation. The court is required to notify the parties of the 5 referral to mediation, and the mediation must then be scheduled to begin within 90 days
6 from the date the complaint was received by the defendant.

7           Third, the bill requires the cost of mediation to be paid equally by the plaintiff and the 8 defendant. Currently, the plaintiff pays for mediation services.

9           Fourth, the bill eliminates the requirement that the attorneys for the plaintiff and the 10 defendant, if the defendant is represented, attend the mediation. A party's attorney may 11 attend mediation, and an attorney in attendance is required to mediate in good faith and is 12 subject to appropriate sanctions for failing to mediate in good faith.
