34 This bill creates a new violation under the law defining the crime of gross sexual 35 assault in which an actor is guilty of gross sexual assault if the actor engages in a sexual 36 act with another person who has not consented to the sexual act; this violation is a Class
37 C crime. The bill also amends the crime of gross sexual assault by repealing the defense

1 to prosecution that the other person voluntarily consumed or allowed the actor to 2 administer to that person drugs or other intoxicants.

3 The bill also amends the crime of unlawful sexual contact and unlawful sexual 4 touching by eliminating language specifying that the other person did not expressly or 5 impliedly acquiesce to the sexual contact or sexual touching and replaces it with language 6 specifying that the person did not consent to the sexual contact or sexual touching.
