1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §806, sub-§1-A is enacted to read:

3 1-A. Department. "Department" means the Department of Labor.

4 Sec. 2. 26 MRSA §807, as enacted by PL 1991, c. 474, §2, is amended to read:

5 §807. Requirements

6 In addition to employer responsibilities set forth in rules adopted under Title 5, 7 section 4572, all employers shall act to ensure a workplace free of sexual harassment by 8 implementing the following minimum requirements.

9 1. Workplace posting. An employer shall post in a prominent and accessible 10 location in the workplace a poster providing, at a minimum, the following information:
11 the illegality of sexual harassment; a description of sexual harassment, utilizing 12 examples; the complaint process available through the commission; and directions on 13 how to contact the commission. The text of this poster may meet but may not exceed 6th-14 grade literacy standards. ~~Upon request, the~~ The commission shall provide this poster to 15 employers ~~at a price that reflects the cost as determined by the commission~~ at no charge.
16 This poster must also be available on the department's publicly accessible website and 17 may be reproduced.

18 2. Employee notification. Employers shall provide annually all employees with 19 individual written notice that includes at a minimum the following information: the 20 illegality of sexual harassment; the definition of sexual harassment under state law; a 21 description of sexual harassment, utilizing examples; the internal complaint process 22 available to the employee; the legal recourse and complaint process available through the 23 commission; directions on how to contact the commission; and the protection against 24 retaliation as provided pursuant to Title 5, section 4553, subsection 10, paragraph D.
25 This notice must be initially provided within 90 days after the effective date of this 26 subchapter. The notice must be delivered in a manner to ensure notice to all employees 27 without exception, such as including the notice with an employee's pay.

28 3. Education and training. In workplaces with 15 or more employees, employers 29 shall conduct an education and training program for all new employees within one year of 30 commencement of employment ~~that includes, at a minimum, the following information:~~
31 Training provided under this subsection must include the illegality of sexual harassment; 32 the definition of sexual harassment under state and federal laws and federal regulations, 33 including the Maine Human Rights Act and the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 United 34 States Code, Title VII, Sections 2000e to 2000e-17; a description of sexual harassment, 35 utilizing examples; the internal complaint process available to the employee; the legal 36 recourse and complaint process available through the commission; directions on how to 37 contact the commission; and the protection against retaliation as provided under Title 5, 38 section 4553, subsection 10, paragraph D. Employers shall conduct additional training 39 for supervisory and managerial employees within one year of commencement of 40 employment that includes, at a minimum, the specific responsibilities of supervisory and

1 managerial employees and methods that these employees must take to ensure immediate 2 and appropriate corrective action in addressing sexual harassment complaints.

3 Education and training programs conducted under this subsection by the State, a county 4 or a municipality for its public safety personnel, including, but not limited to, law
5 enforcement personnel, corrections personnel and firefighters, may be used to meet 6 training and education requirements mandated by any other law, rule or other official 7 requirement.

8 4. Compliance assistance. The commission shall provide employers with a training 9 guide to assist them in meeting the requirements under this subchapter. The guide must 10 be made available on the publicly accessible websites of both the commission and the 11 department. The commission shall update the training guide annually or when regulatory 12 changes are made. The guide must address the required elements specified in subsection 13 3 and include relevant examples from actual commission cases.

14 5. Enforcement. The department shall enforce the notification requirement under 15 this section and, upon inspection or complaint, shall ensure that employers have provided 16 the training as required by subsection 3. If the department has determined that an 17 employer has complied with the provisions of this subchapter, that determination and all 18 completed enforcement actions are considered final and may not be challenged by the 19 commission.

20 The commission may request department enforcement records related to a complaint filed 21 with the commission when the complaint is related to this subsection. Such records are 22 subject to section 3.

23 6. Penalties for violations. An employer who violates this section may be assessed 24 a fine by the department in accordance with this subsection.

25 A. An employer who violates the workplace posting requirement in subsection 1 26 may be assessed:

27 (1) For the first violation, a fine of up to $25 per day, not to exceed $1,000;

28 (2) For a 2nd violation occurring within 3 years of a prior violation, a fine of not 29 less than $25 per day up to $50 per day, not to exceed $2,500; and

30 (3) For a 3rd or subsequent violation occurring within 3 years of 2 or more prior 31 violations, a fine of not less than $25 per day up to $100 per day, not to exceed 32 $5,000.

33 B. An employer who violates the notification, education or training requirements set 34 forth in subsection 2 or 3 may be assessed:

35 (1) For the first violation, a fine of $1,000;

36 (2) For a 2nd violation, a fine of $2,500; and 37 (3) For a 3rd or subsequent violation, a fine of $5,000.
