10 SUMMARY

11 Current law provides that compensation may not be paid from the Victims'
12 Compensation Fund to any claimant who does not fully cooperate with the Victims'
13 Compensation Board or with the reasonable requests of law enforcement officers or 14 prosecution authorities or to or on behalf of any person who violated a criminal law that 15 caused or contributed to the injury or death for which compensation is sought. This bill
16 provides that the board may deny compensation in whole or in part in these 17 circumstances.
