1           Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves of the Legislature do not 2 become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

3           Whereas, laws were enacted by the 128th Legislature that inadvertently omitted a 4 cross-reference to the Maine Rules of Evidence in the law on service of process on 5 foreign entities that are providers of electronic communication service and providers of 6 remote computing service; repealed the option of prosecuting possession of up to 2 1/2 7 ounces of marijuana by persons under 18 years of age as a civil violation; and neglected
8 to amend the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act of 2013 to include a 9 registration obligation for the new crime of gross sexual assault based on lack of 10 acquiescence; and

11           Whereas, timely correction of these errors and omissions is necessary to the proper 12 administration of the criminal laws; and

13           Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within 14 the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as 15 immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, 16 therefore,

17           Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

18           Sec. 1. 15 MRSA §56, sub-§2, ¶C, as enacted by PL 2017, c. 144, §3, is

23 governed by the laws of another state and that complies with the requirements set 24 forth in the Maine Rules of Evidence, Rule 902(12) if the foreign entity that is the 25 provider of services is governed by the laws of a foreign country. Admissibility of 26 these records in a court in this State is governed by the Maine Rules of Evidence,

25 SUMMARY

26 This bill is emergency legislation. The bill makes the following corrections to the 27 criminal and related laws and to the law on possession of more than 2 1/2 ounces of 28 marijuana.

29 1. Public Law 2017, chapter 144, section 3 failed to distinguish, in the laws on 30 service of process on providers of electronic communication service and providers of 31 remote computing service, between foreign entities that are governed by laws of states
32 other than Maine and those that are governed by laws of foreign countries. The bill
33 distinguishes these 2 types of foreign entities and provides a cross-reference to the Maine
34 Rules of Evidence for each type of foreign entity.

35 2. Public Law 2017, chapter 1, section 20 designated possession of up to 2 1/2 36 ounces of marijuana by a person under 18 years of age a violation of the Maine Juvenile 37 Code, which was one of 2 options for prosecution under prior law. Chapter 1 repealed 38 the option of prosecution of possession as a civil violation. The bill retains the

1 designation of possession as a juvenile crime and restores the designation of possession 2 as a civil violation. Neither the juvenile crime nor the civil violation applies to 3 possession of up to 2 1/2 ounces by a person under 21 years of age who is a qualified 4 patient for the purposes of the Medical Use of Marijuana Act.

5 3. Public Law 2017, chapter 300 created a new version of the crime of gross sexual 6 assault, specifically, engaging in a sexual act with another person when that other person
7 has not expressly or impliedly acquiesced to the sexual act. The law neglected to create a 8 corresponding registration provision for the newly defined variant of gross sexual assault.
9 The bill designates gross sexual assault based on lack of acquiescence to the sexual act as 10 a Tier II offense under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act of 2013. The 11 registration obligation will apply to conduct committed on or after the effective date of 12 this Act.
