1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 3 MRSA §2, 4th ¶, as corrected by RR 2001, c. 2, Pt. A, §1, is amended to 3 read:

4 ~~Except~~ Until the 130th Legislature, except as provided in this section, each member
5 of the Senate and House of Representatives is entitled to a meal allowance in the amount 6 of $32 and a housing allowance in the amount of $38 for each day in attendance at 7 sessions of the Legislature and for each day the member occupies overnight
8 accommodations away from home either immediately preceding or immediately
9 following attendance at daily sessions of the Legislature. Beginning with the 130th
10 Legislature, each member of the Senate and House of Representatives is entitled to a 11 meal allowance of $32 and a housing allowance in an amount determined annually by the 12 Legislative Council, which must be no less than the average nightly rate of lodging in the 13 Augusta area, for each day in attendance at sessions of the Legislature and for each day
14 the member occupies overnight accommodations away from home either immediately 15 preceding or immediately following attendance at daily sessions of the Legislature. The 16 presiding officers may establish reasonable policies regarding allowances for meals and 17 overnight accommodations for the day immediately preceding the session, which may 18 include policies regarding whether an allowance is paid, whether the full amount or a 19 portion of the ~~statutory~~ allowance is paid and whether receipts are required. In lieu of the 20 meal and housing allowance, each member is entitled to a daily meal allowance in the 21 amount of $32 and actual daily mileage allowances in an amount up to but not exceeding 22 $38 per day. Each member of the Senate also receives an annual allowance for 23 constituent services in the amount of $2,000, $1,300 in January and $700 in the month 24 following adjournment of the regular session. Each member of the House of 25 Representatives also receives an annual allowance for constituent services in the amount 26 of $1,500, $1,005 in January and $495 in the month following adjournment of the regular 27 session. Notwithstanding this section, during the first regular session of each legislative 28 biennium, a member of the Senate or the House of Representatives may elect to receive 29 the first payment of the annual allowance for constituent services in December following 30 convening of the Legislature by notifying the Executive Director of the Legislative 31 Council in the manner prescribed by the executive director. The Executive Director of 32 the Legislative Council shall inform Legislators of the choice available for payment of 33 the allowance for constituent services in the first year of the legislative biennium and of 34 any tax implications associated with exercising that choice.

35 SUMMARY

36 This bill changes, beginning with the 130th Legislature, the per diem housing 37 allowance from a set amount of $38 per day to an amount that is established annually by 38 the Legislative Council based on the average rate of lodging in the Augusta area.
