35 licensee are unable to agree on the reasonable compensation to be paid for the fair market 36 value of the wholesale licensee's business related to the terminated brand or brands of the 37 small beer manufacturer within 7 days of the date on which the small beer manufacturer
38 amends, cancels, terminates, refuses to continue, refuses to renew or causes the wholesale 39 licensee to resign from an agreement or the date on which the small beer manufacturer 40 unreasonably withholds its consent to any assignment, transfer or sale of the wholesale 41 licensee's business, the small beer manufacturer and the wholesale licensee shall submit 42 the matter to final and binding arbitration before a neutral arbitrator selected by the 43 parties or, if the parties are unable to agree on the arbitrator within an additional 7 days, 44 by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, and the arbitration proceeding must

1 be governed by the Uniform Arbitration Act, as modified by the terms and conditions set 2 forth in this subsection. The arbitration proceeding must commence within 10 days of the 3 date on which the arbitrator is selected by the parties. Each of the parties shall, at least 7 4 days before the date of the commencement of the arbitration proceeding, submit to the 5 arbitrator and the other party the party's final offer as to the amount of reasonable
6 compensation to be paid for the fair market value of the wholesale licensee's business 7 related to the terminated brand or brands of the small beer manufacturer, together with 8 any relevant evidence in support of that amount. The arbitrator shall choose which of the 9 final offers from the parties is the amount of reasonable compensation to be paid for the 10 fair market value of the wholesale licensee's business related to the terminated brand or 11 brands of the small beer manufacturer. If a party fails to submit its final offer as to the 12 amount of reasonable compensation to be paid for the fair market value of the wholesale 13 licensee's business related to the terminated brand or brands of the small beer 14 manufacturer at least 7 days before the date of the commencement of the arbitration 15 proceeding, except for reasonable excuse or delay by the party, the arbitrator shall choose 16 the other party's final offer and the other party's final offer must serve as the arbitrator's 17 decision on the matter. If the parties reach an agreement as to the amount of reasonable
18 compensation to be paid for the fair market value of the wholesale licensee's business 19 related to the terminated brand or brands of the small beer manufacturer before the 20 arbitrator issues the arbitrator's decision on the matter, the parties may submit a joint final 21 offer, which the arbitrator shall accept, and the parties' joint final offer must serve as the 22 arbitrator's decision on the matter. The arbitrator may hold hearings and administer 23 oaths, examine witnesses and documents, take testimony and receive evidence and issue
24 subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of records. A person 25 who fails to obey the subpoena of the arbitrator may be punished for contempt of court on 26 application by the arbitrator to the Superior Court for the county in which the failure 27 occurs. The arbitrator may use other information in addition to that provided by or 28 elicited from the parties. The arbitrator shall issue a decision on the matter within 15 29 days of the date of commencement of the arbitration proceeding. The costs of the 30 arbitration must be paid by the nonprevailing party, and the arbitrator may award the 31 prevailing party its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

32 SUMMARY

33 This bill changes the definition of "small brewery" by increasing the amount of malt
34 liquor a small brewery may brew from 50,000 gallons to 30,000 barrels per year. It 35 defines a "small beer manufacturer" as a small brewery or out-of-state brewer that is 36 brewing, lagering and kegging, bottling or packaging its own malt liquor, not to exceed 37 30,000 barrels per year. If a small beer manufacturer terminates its distribution 38 relationship with a wholesale licensee, unless for good cause, causes a wholesale licensee 39 to resign from an agreement, unless for good cause, or unreasonably withholds its consent 40 to any assignment, transfer or sale of a wholesale licensee's business and that small beer 41 manufacturer's brands make up no more than 3% of the wholesale licensee's business, the 42 bill sets the maximum amount of the termination fee that the wholesale licensee is 43 entitled to receive from that small beer manufacturer in connection with the termination.
44 The bill amends the laws governing certain notice requirements that the small beer 45 manufacturer must satisfy in connection with the termination, provides expedited

1 arbitration proceedings for a small beer manufacturer and a wholesale licensee in 2 connection with a dispute regarding the amount of the termination fee and provides that, 3 regardless of whether the terminated wholesale licensee has received payment of the 4 termination fee from the small beer manufacturer, upon written notice of the termination
5 to the wholesale licensee, the small beer manufacturer may appoint a new wholesale 6 licensee to distribute the relevant products in the terminated wholesale licensee's territory
7 or, if the small beer manufacturer is a small brewery, sell the terminated brand or brands
8 of the small beer manufacturer directly to retail licensees in the terminated wholesale 9 licensee's territory without selling the brand or brands to a wholesale licensee. Lastly, 10 this bill allows a wholesale licensee and a small beer manufacturer to agree upon or limit 11 the amount of a termination fee pursuant to a distribution agreement as long as that 12 termination fee does not exceed the maximum amount of the termination fee, as set forth 13 in the bill.
