SUMMARY

The bill amends the Maine Criminal Code to provide that under certain circumstances a person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child if the person stores or leaves a loaded firearm on premises that are under the person's control and a child gains access to the loaded firearm. This amendment amends that provision to specify that storing or leaving a loaded firearm on premises under a person's control with criminal negligence in a manner that allows a child to gain access to that firearm, and the child in fact gains access to the loaded firearm and uses it, is considered endangering the welfare of a child and is a Class D crime.
