Fiscal Detail and Notes

The bill elevates from a Class D to a Class C the crime of patronizing prostitution of a person who has not attained 18 years of age. Sentences for Class C crimes are served in a state correctional facility while sentences for Class D crimes are served in a county jail, increasing state correctional costs. It is unclear how many individuals will now be convicted of a Class C crime who otherwise would not have been. The current average cost of incarcerating an individual for a single year is $55,203. The Department of Corrections has not indicated the need for additional funding at this time and no funding is included in the bill.
