2	Sec. 1. 5 MRSA §13100-A is enacted to read:
3	§13100-A. Small Business Capital Savings Account Program
4 5 6 7 8	1. Program established. The Small Business Capital Savings Account Program is established within and administered by the department to certify businesses as eligible for a tax deduction under Title 36, section 5122, subsection 2, paragraph XX or Title 36, section 5200-A, subsection 2, paragraph JJ for contributions made to small business capital savings accounts.
9 10	2. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following terms have the following meanings.
11 12	A. "Capital expenditure" means an expenditure for the acquisition of items that are depreciable under the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
13	B. "Eligible small business" means a business that:
14	(1) Is subject to taxation under Title 36, Part 8;
15	(2) Has its business headquarters in the State;
16	(3) Is a C corporation, an S corporation or a sole proprietorship;
17	(4) Has no more than 99 full-time equivalent employees;
18	(5) Has its primary business activities in farming, fishing or forestry industries;
19	(6) Makes contributions in accordance with Title 26, section 1221; and
20 21	(7) Is determined by the department to have established no more than one small business capital savings account.
22 23	C. "Program" means the Small Business Capital Saving Account Program established in subsection 1.
24 25 26	D. "Small business capital savings account" means a savings account established in the State by an eligible small business at a financial institution as defined in Title 36, section 5206-D, subsection 8.
27 28	3. Certification of businesses. The department shall certify up to 10 eligible small businesses in each of the following industry categories:
29 30	A. Commercial agricultural production as defined in Title 36, section 2013, subsection 1, paragraph A;
31 32	B. Commercial fishing as defined in Title 36, section 2013, subsection 1, paragraph B; or
33 34	C. Commercial wood harvesting as defined in Title 36, section 2013, subsection 1, paragraph B-1.
35 36 37 38	If there are not 10 eligible small businesses in one of the industry categories specified in paragraphs A to C, the department may certify eligible small businesses in one of the other industry categories, but the total number of eligible small businesses certified may not exceed 30. If there are more than 10 eligible small businesses in an industry category, the

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

- department shall give priority in the order in which the businesses are determined to be eligible.
  - 4. Requirements for small business capital savings accounts. A small business capital savings account must:
    - A. Have as its sole purpose the accumulation of capital to be used for capital expenditures by the eligible small business;
    - B. Maintain a balance that does not exceed $250,000;

1 2

- C. Provide that withdrawals from the account may be used only for capital expenditures by the eligible small business; and
- D. Provide that all funds in the account must be withdrawn within one year of the dissolution of the business.
- 5. Certification of withdrawals. An eligible small business shall notify the department of all withdrawals from a small business capital savings account and provide information required by the department to verify the use of the funds withdrawn. The department shall annually certify all withdrawals made by an eligible small business for capital expenditures.
- 6. Notification to the Bureau of Revenue Services. The department shall notify the Department of Administrative and Financial Services, Bureau of Revenue Services annually of all eligible small businesses certified under subsection 3 that continue to meet the conditions of eligibility during the calendar year and withdrawals certified under subsection 5 for eligible small businesses and provide any other information necessary for the bureau to determine a taxpayer's eligibility for the tax deduction under Title 36, section 5122, subsection 2, paragraph XX or Title 36, section 5200-A, subsection 2, paragraph JJ.
- 7. Rules; other requirements. The department, in consultation with the Department of Administrative and Financial Services, Bureau of Revenue Services, shall adopt routine technical rules, as defined in Title 5, chapter 375, subchapter 2-A, to implement this section. The department may establish any other guidelines or requirements necessary for the operation of the program.
- 8. Report. The department shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over taxation matters by December 15, 2023 that includes data demonstrating the extent of business participation in the program, including the number of businesses certified as eligible for the tax deductions under Title 36, section 5122, subsection 2, paragraph XX and Title 36, section 5200-A, subsection 2, paragraph JJ, the amount of savings contributed by eligible small businesses to small business capital savings accounts during each year and the amount of withdrawals by eligible small businesses each year for capital expenditures. The report must contain the department's analysis of the success of the program and a recommendation regarding whether the program should be continued. The committee may submit legislation related to the report to the Second Regular Session of the 131st Legislature.
- 9. Application. This section applies to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2021.
- 10. Repeal. This section is repealed December 31, 2024. After that date no new contributions may be made to a small business capital savings account.
