The pilot program began in June 2020 and, with the extension included in the resolve, will run until June 2024. The amendment provides that the commission's interim report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over judiciary matters is due September 15, 2023 and that the final report must be submitted by September 15, 2024, after the conclusion of the 4th year of the pilot program.
