COMMITTEE AMENDMENT

1

SUMMARY

This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, replaces the bill and changes the title. Under the amendment, if the court appoints an expert other than a guardian ad litem to provide recommendations regarding the award of parental rights and responsibilities or conditions of parent-child contact in cases involving allegations of domestic abuse between the parents, that expert must be a licensed clinical social worker, psychologist or psychiatrist who has training and expertise in how domestic abuse tactics affect adult and child safety, the effects of domestic abuse on children, best practices for recognizing and assessing the effects of domestic abuse on the parent-child relationship and methods for reducing post-separation abuse and promoting child safety and security
