SUMMARY

29

This amendment, which is the unanimous report of the committee, provides that a person may file a complaint with the Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices specifying an alleged violation of the prohibition on former executive branch employee lobbying. The commission is required to notify the person against whom the complaint has been filed and may undertake the investigation of the alleged violation. The commission may direct commission staff to undertake an investigation of an alleged violation on its own motion. The amendment also provides that a person who intentionally
