SUMMARY

9 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, replaces the bill. The 10 amendment updates the term "Maine Native American studies" with "Wabanaki studies" 11 in the laws regarding elementary and secondary education requirements and provides that, 12 in addition to being a required component in Maine studies, Wabanaki studies may be 13 taught as a component in other content areas, as appropriate. The amendment also directs 14 the Commissioner of Education to consider the inclusion of Wabanaki studies in content 15 areas other than social studies in the system of learning results when conducting the 16 commissioner's next regular review of the content standards and performance indicators.
