DAREK M. GRANT
Secretary of the Senate

Presented by Senator DAUGHTRY of Cumberland.

Cosponsored by Senator: BALDACCI of Penobscot, Representative: CLOUTIER of Lewiston.

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 26 MRSA §600-B is enacted to read:

3 §600-B. Adverse action against employee concerning certain religious or political 4 matters prohibited

5 1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 6 following terms have the following meanings.

7 A. "Political matters" means matters relating to elections for political office, political 8 parties, proposals to change legislation, proposals to change rules or regulations, 9 proposals to change public policy and the decision to join or support any political party 10 or political, civic, community, fraternal or labor organization.

11 B. "Religious employer" means a church or convention or association of churches or 12 an organization that is operated primarily for religious purposes and that is operated, 13 supervised, controlled or principally supported by a church or convention or 14 association of churches.

15 C. "Religious matters" means matters relating to religious belief, affiliation and 16 practice and the decision to join or support any religious organization or association.

17 2. Adverse action prohibited. An employer or the employer's agent, representative or 18 designee may not discharge, discipline or otherwise penalize or threaten to discharge, 19 discipline or otherwise penalize or take any adverse employment action against an 20 employee:

21 A. Because the employee declines to attend or participate in an employer-sponsored 22 meeting or declines to receive or listen to a communication from the employer or the 23 agent, representative or designee of the employer if the meeting or communication is 24 to communicate the opinion of the employer about religious matters or political 25 matters;

26 B. As a means of inducing an employee to attend or participate in a meeting or receive 27 or listen to a communication described in paragraph A; or

28 C. Because the employee, or a person acting on behalf of the employee, makes a good 29 faith report, orally or in writing, of a violation or a suspected violation of this section.

30 3. Enforcement. An aggrieved employee may bring a civil action to enforce this 31 section no later than 90 days after the date of the alleged violation in the Superior Court for 32 the county where the violation is alleged to have occurred or where the principal office of 33 the employer is located. The court may award a prevailing employee all appropriate relief, 34 including injunctive relief, reinstatement to the employee's former position or an equivalent 35 position, back pay and reestablishment of any employee benefits, including seniority, to 36 which the employee would otherwise have been eligible if the violation had not occurred
37 and any other appropriate relief as considered necessary by the court. The court shall award 38 a prevailing employee reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

39 4. Notice. Within 30 days after the effective date of this section, an employer subject 40 to this section shall post and keep posted a notice of employee rights under this section 41 where employee notices are customarily placed.

42 5. Communications and rights not affected. This section does not:
