17 Act of 1993, 29 United States Code, Section 2611, et seq., and under subchapter 6-A.

39 of the following while on family leave or medical leave:

10 to a claim for safe leave or qualifying exigency leave.

11 2. Filing of application. An individual may file an application for family leave 12 benefits or medical leave benefits no more than 60 days before the anticipated start date of 18 within 5 business days of a claim being filed pursuant to this subchapter.

19 4. Confidentiality. Any medical or health information required under this section 20 must be treated as confidential and may not be disclosed except with permission from the 21 covered individual who provided it unless disclosure is otherwise required by law. Nothing 22 in this section may be construed to require a covered individual to provide as certification 23 any information from a health care provider that would be in violation of Section 1177 of 24 the federal Social Security Act, 42 United States Code, Section 1320d-6.

25 5. Ineligibility. A covered individual is not eligible to receive family leave benefits 26 or medical leave benefits if the administrator finds, through a process established by rule, 27 that the covered individual, for the purpose of obtaining these benefits, has willfully made 28 a false statement or misrepresentation regarding a material fact or has willfully withheld a 29 material fact concerning the facts required to be certified pursuant to this section. The 17           provide weekly family leave benefits and medical leave benefits under section 850-C.

18           Family leave benefits and medical leave benefits must be paid from the fund to covered 19           individuals eligible for benefits. An employer's bankruptcy or noncompliance with this 20           subchapter does not interfere with an employee's ability to collect family leave benefits and 21           medical leave benefits under this subchapter. Family leave benefits and medical leave 22           benefits paid from the fund to such an employee may be recovered through bankruptcy
23           proceedings or from the noncomplying employer. The administrator shall institute 24           administrative and legal action to recover family leave benefits and medical leave benefits 25           paid through the fund.

26           6. Report. Beginning October 1, 2026 and annually thereafter, the administrator shall 27           publish a report providing the following information concerning the program for the 28           previous fiscal year:

30           B. The percentage of eligible claims attributable to medical leave;

31           C. The percentage of eligible claims attributable to family leave for the serious health 32           condition of a family member;

33           D. The percentage of eligible claims attributable to family leave other than for the 34           birth, adoption or fostering of a child;

37           F. The percentage of eligible claims attributable to family leave for a qualifying 38           exigency;

39           G. The percentage of eligible claims attributable to family leave for a covered service

5           §850-F. Premiums

6           1. Authorized. Payroll premiums must be paid in order to finance the payment of 7           family leave benefits and medical leave benefits under this subchapter and administration

8           of the program.

9           2. Employer to remit premiums to fund. Beginning January 1, 2025, for each

10           employee, an employer shall remit to the fund premiums in the form and manner

11           determined by the administrator. Premiums must be remitted quarterly.

12           3. Premium amount. The following provisions govern the premium amount.

13           A. Beginning January 1, 2025, the premium amount may not be more than a combined 14           rate of 1.0% of wages.

15           B. Annually, for the 2028 calendar year and each calendar year thereafter, not later

16           than October 1st, the administrator shall set the premium for the coming calendar year

17           based on a percentage of employee wages and at the rate necessary to obtain a total

18           amount of premium contributions equal to 140% of the benefits paid during the 19           previous fiscal year plus an amount equal to 100% of the cost of administration of the 20           payment of those benefits during the previous fiscal year, less the amount of net assets

21           remaining in the fund as of June 30th of the current calendar year. If, for the 2028

22           calendar year or any calendar year thereafter, the premium rate adjustment pursuant to

23           this subsection is an increase and results in the difference between the rate of the 24           upcoming calendar year and the current calendar year equaling more than 0.1% of 25           wages paid, the administrator shall submit a report regarding fund solvency and factors

26           contributing to rate setting to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having 27           jurisdiction over labor matters.

28           4. Self-employed individuals. The following provisions govern self-employed 29           individuals.

30           A. A self-employed individual who elects coverage under section 850-G shall pay 50%

31           of the premium required for an employee by subsection 3 on that individual's income 32           from self-employment.

33           B. A self-employed individual who elects coverage under section 850-G shall remit

34           the premium amount required by this subsection directly to the administrator, in the 35           form and manner required by the commissioner by rule.

36           5. Employers. The following provisions govern employers.

37           A. An employer with 15 or more employees may deduct up to 50% of the premium

38           required for an employee by subsection 3 from that employee's wages and shall remit

39           100% of the premium required by subsection 3 to the fund.

40           B. An employer with fewer than 15 employees may deduct up to 50% of the premium

41           required for an employee by subsection 3 from that employee's wages and shall remit

42           50% of the premium required by subsection 3 to the fund.

1           6. Limit on wages to determine premiums. Premiums are required up to the 2 contribution and benefit base limit established annually by the federal Social Security
3 Administration for purposes of the federal Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance 4 program limits pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 430.

5           7. Use. The premiums collected under this subchapter must be used exclusively for 6 the payment of family leave benefits and medical leave benefits and the costs of 7 administration of the program.

8           8. Approved private plan. An employer with an approved private plan under section 9 850-H is not required to remit premiums under this section to the fund.

10           9. Failure or refusal to make premium contributions. An employer that fails or 11 refuses to make premium contributions as required in this section must be assessed 1.0% 12 of its total annual payroll for each year it so failed to comply in addition to any amounts 13 previously owed, or fraction thereof, in addition to the total amount of family leave benefits 14 and medical leave benefits paid to covered individuals for whom it failed to make premium 15 contributions. The rate of assessment imposed by this subsection must be adjusted for the 16 2028 calendar year and annually thereafter consistent with subsection 3, paragraph B.

17           10. Self-employed individual who elects coverage and fails or refuses to make 18 premium contributions. A self-employed individual who elects coverage under section 19 850-G and who fails or refuses to make premium contributions for at least 2 quarters as 20 required in this section may be disqualified from family leave benefits and medical leave 21 benefits. The self-employed individual's disqualification terminates upon:

22           A. The self-employed individual's remittance of all previously owed premium 23 contributions as required in this section; and 24           B. Following remittance as required by paragraph A, the self-employed individual's 25 remittance of premium contributions as required in this section for an additional 26 number of quarters equivalent to the number of quarters for which the self-employed 27 individual failed or refused to make premium contributions.

28           §850-G. Elective coverage

29           1. Self-employed individual. A self-employed individual, including an independent 30 contractor, sole proprietor or partner, may elect coverage under this subchapter for an initial 31 period of not less than 3 years. The self-employed individual shall file a notice of election 32 in writing with the commissioner, as required by the administrator. The election becomes 33 effective on the date of filing the notice. As a condition of election, the self-employed 34 individual must agree to supply any information concerning wages that the administrator 35 considers necessary.

36           2. Withdrawal from coverage. A self-employed individual who has elected coverage 37 may withdraw from coverage within 30 days after the end of the 3-year period of coverage, 38 or at such other times as the commissioner may prescribe by rule, by filing written notice
39 with the commissioner. A withdrawal may not take effect sooner than 30 days after filing 40 the notice.

41           3. Individual no longer self-employed. An individual who has elected coverage 42 under this section and is no longer a self-employed individual must be excused from that 43 individual's obligations under this section, as the administrator prescribes by rule.

1           §850-H. Substitution of private plans

2           1. Application for approval of private plan. An employer may apply to the 3 administrator for approval to meet its obligations under this subchapter through a private 4 plan. In order to be approved, a private plan must confer all of the same rights, protections 5 and benefits provided to employees under this subchapter, including, but not limited to:

6           A. Allowing family leave and medical leave to be taken for all purposes specified in 7 section 850-B, subsections 1 and 2;

12 benefits of at least the amount required by section 850-C, subsection 2;

13           D. Providing a maximum weekly benefit for all family leave benefits and medical 14 leave benefits of at least the amount specified in section 850-C, subsection 3;

15           E. Allowing a covered individual to take intermittent leave as authorized by section 16 850-B, subsection 4;

17           F. Imposing no additional conditions or restrictions on family leave benefits and 18 medical leave benefits, or on family leave and medical leave taken in connection with 19 those benefits, beyond those explicitly authorized by this subchapter or rules adopted 20 pursuant to this subchapter;

21           G. Allowing any employee covered under the private plan who is eligible for family 22 leave benefits and medical leave benefits under this subchapter to receive benefits and 23 take family leave and medical leave under the private plan; and 24           H. Providing that the cost to employees covered by the private plan may not be greater 25 than the cost charged to employees under section 850-F.

26           2. Additional requirements. In order to be approved as meeting an employer's 27 obligations under this subchapter, a private plan must also comply with the following 28 provisions:

29           A. If the private plan is in the form of self-insurance, the employer must furnish a bond 30 to the State with a surety company authorized to transact business in the State, in the 31 form, amount and manner required by the administrator;

32           B. The plan must provide coverage for all employees of the employer throughout the 33 employee's period of employment with that employer; and 34           C. If the plan is in the form of a 3rd party that provides for insurance, the forms of the 35 policy must be issued by an insurer approved by the State.

36           3. Withdrawal of approval. The administrator shall withdraw approval for a private 37 plan granted under subsection 1 when terms or conditions of the plan have been violated.
38 Causes for plan termination include, but are not limited to, the following:

4 commissioner by rule; or

5 F. Failure to comply with this subchapter or the rules adopted pursuant to this 6 subchapter.

7 4. Rights retained. An employee covered by a private plan approved under this 8 section retains all applicable rights otherwise provided under federal and state law.

9 5. Appeal. A contested determination or denial of family leave benefits or medical 10 leave benefits by a private plan is subject to appeal before the administrator and a court of 11 competent jurisdiction as provided in section 850-K.

12 6. Violations. Employers offering private plans that violate this section are subject to 13 a fine of $100 per violation. The administrator shall transfer any fines collected pursuant 14 to this subsection to the fund. The administrator by rule shall establish a process for the 15 assessment and appeal of fines under this subsection.

16 7. Cost of administration. The administrator shall annually determine the total 17 amount expended by the administrator for costs arising out of the administration of private 18 plans. An employer offering a private plan pursuant to this section shall reimburse the 19 administrator for the costs arising out of the private plan in the amount, form and manner 20 determined by the administrator by rule. The administrator shall transfer payments received 21 pursuant to this subsection to the fund.

22 §850-I. Notice

23 1. Posted notice. An employer shall post in a conspicuous place on each of its 24 premises a workplace notice provided or approved by the administrator providing notice of 25 benefits available under this subchapter. The administrator shall issue the workplace notice 26 in English, Spanish, French, Somali and Portuguese and any other language that is the 27 primary language of at least 2,000 residents of the State. The employer shall post the 28 workplace notice in English and each language other than English that is the primary 29 language of 3 or more employees of that workplace, if such notice is available from the 30 administrator.

31 2. Written notice. An employer shall issue to each employee not more than 30 days 32 from the beginning date of the employee's employment the following written information 33 provided or approved by the administrator in the employee's primary language:

- 2           G. Any other information deemed necessary by the administrator.

3           3. Failure to comply. An employer that fails to comply with this section commits a 4 civil violation for which must be assessed, for a first violation, a civil penalty of $50 per 5 employee and $150 per employee for each subsequent violation. The employer has the 6 burden of demonstrating compliance with this section.

7           4. Notice to employer. An employee shall give at least 30 days' notice to the employer 8 of the anticipated starting date of leave, the anticipated length of leave and the expected 9 date of return or shall provide notice as soon as practicable if the delay is due to exigent 10 circumstances or for reasons beyond the employee's control. If an employer fails to provide 11 notice as required under this section, the employee's obligation to provide notice under this 12 subsection is waived.

13           §850-J. Prohibited practices

14           1. Retaliation prohibited. It is unlawful for an employer to retaliate by discharging, 15 firing, suspending, expelling or disciplining, through the application of attendance policies 16 or otherwise, or threatening or in any manner discriminating against an employee for 17 exercising any right to which the employee is entitled under this subchapter or with the 18 purpose of interfering with the exercise of any right to which the employee is entitled under 19 this chapter.

20           2. Change in status. An employer may not make any negative change in the seniority, 30 chapter 13.

31           2. Judicial review. Judicial review of any decision with respect to family leave 32 benefits or medical leave benefits must be permitted in a court of competent jurisdiction 33 after a party aggrieved by the decision has exhausted all administrative remedies 34 established by the administrator.

35           3. Information related to appeals; confidentiality. The administrator shall 36 implement procedures to ensure confidentiality, to the maximum extent permitted by 37 applicable laws, of all information related to any claims filed or appeals made under this 38 subchapter.

39           §850-L. Disqualification of covered individual

40           1. False statement; misrepresentation. A covered individual is disqualified from 41 family leave benefits and medical leave benefits for one year if the individual is determined 42 by the administrator to have willfully made a false statement or misrepresentation regarding

1 a material fact, or willfully failed to report a material fact, to obtain benefits under this 2 subchapter.

3 2. Erroneous payment. If family leave benefits or medical leave benefits are paid 4 erroneously or as the result of willful misrepresentation or a claim for family leave benefits 5 or medical leave benefits is rejected after benefits are paid, the administrator may seek 6 repayment of benefits from the recipient. The administrator shall exercise discretion to 7 waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such payments if the recovery would be 8 against equity and good conscience.

9 §850-M. Tax treatment

10 1. Federal tax. If the federal Internal Revenue Service determines that family leave 11 benefits or medical leave benefits under this subchapter are subject to federal income tax, 12 the administrator shall advise an individual filing a new claim for family leave benefits or 13 medical leave benefits, at the time the individual files the claim, that:

14 A. The federal Internal Revenue Service has determined that benefits are subject to 15 federal income tax;

16 B. Requirements exist pertaining to estimated tax payments;

17 C. The individual may elect to have federal income tax deducted and withheld from 18 the individual's payment of benefits in the amount specified in the United States 19 Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and 20 D. The individual is permitted to change a previously elected withholding status.

21 2. Withholding of federal income tax payments. If an individual elects to have 23 medical leave benefits payments, the administrator shall deduct and withhold the amount 24 specified in the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 in a manner consistent with 25 the requirements in Title 36. Amounts deducted and withheld from benefits must remain 26 in the fund until transferred to the federal taxing authority as a payment of income tax.

27 3. Conformity to Internal Revenue Service procedures. The administrator shall 28 follow all procedures specified by the federal Internal Revenue Service pertaining to the

1 SUMMARY

2 This bill implements a paid family and medical leave benefits program based on the 3 recommendations of the Commission to Develop a Paid Family and Medical Leave 4 Benefits Program established by the 130th Legislature. The program provides up to 12 5 weeks of family leave and up to 12 weeks of medical leave to eligible covered individuals.
6 No more than 16 weeks of family leave and medical leave in the aggregate may be taken 7 in a 12-month period. An individual is eligible for leave under the program after earning at 8 least 6 times the state average weekly wage in the preceding 4 calendar quarters prior to 9 submitting an application or if the individual is self-employed and has elected to be part of 10 the program.

11 The maximum weekly benefit amount is capped at 120% of the state average weekly 12 wage. The weekly benefit amount is 90% of the covered individual's average weekly wage.

13 Covered individuals are required to file claims for benefits in accordance with rules 14 adopted by the department administering the program and to provide certification that they 15 qualify for family leave or medical leave.

16 The bill establishes the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Fund to support the 17 program. The funds for administrative costs and payment of benefits come from payroll 18 contributions of no more than 1% of wages shared by employers and employees, except 19 that employers with fewer than 15 employees are not required to make employer 20 contributions to the program. The bill also authorizes employers to provide these benefits 21 through a private plan as long as the benefits for family and medical leave provided to their 22 employees are the same as provided in the program.

23 The bill establishes the Paid Family and Medical Leave Benefits Authority to advise 24 the administrator on the implementation and administration of the program.

25 The bill requires payroll contributions to begin January 1, 2025 and benefit claims to 26 be processed beginning January 1, 2026.

27 The bill authorizes the Department of Economic and Community Development to 28 conduct outreach with businesses about the paid family and medical leave benefits 29 program.

30 The bill requires the program to be reviewed under the State Government Evaluation 31 Act in 2029.
