13	Sec. 1. 30 MRSA §6215 is enacted to read
14 15	§6215. Application of statutes and regulations of the United States to the Passamaguoddy Tribe
	1. Further legislative findings regarding the application of statutes and
16 17	regulations of the United States to the Passamaquoddy Tribe. Sections 6(h) and 16(b)
18	of United States Public Law 96-420 provide that the laws and regulations of the United
19	States that are generally applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to a
20	special status or right of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by
21	or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians are applicable within
22	this State unless such law or regulation affects or preempts the civil, criminal or regulatory
23	jurisdiction of this State, including, without limitation, laws of this State relating to land
24	use or environmental matters
25	A. The amendments to this Act enacted in 2023 modify the application of the laws of
26	this State with respect to the Passamaquoddy Tribe and its Indian territory or trust land to the limited extent that such laws, in the absence of these amendments, would be
27	affected or preempted by the application of the statutes and regulations of the United
28	States that are generally applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to
29 30	a special status or right of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned
30	by or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians, except as
32	otherwise provided by these amendments
33	B The amendments to this Act enacted in 2023 confirm, establish and enable, with
34	respect to the Passamaguoddy Tribe and its Indian territory or trust land, the operation,
35	application and implementation in this State of the statutes and regulations of the
36	United States that are generally applicable to Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands

 - Sec. 2. 30 MRSA §6216 1s enacted to read
- 16 §6216 Application of statutes and regulations of the United States to the Penobscot
 17 Nation

Further legislative findings regarding the application of statutes and 18 regulations of the United States to the Penobscot Nation. Sections 6(h) and 16(b) of 19 United States Public Law 96-420 provide that the laws and regulations of the United States 20 that are generally applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to a special 21 status or right of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by or held 22 in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians are applicable within this 23 State unless such law or regulation affects or preempts the civil, criminal or regulatory 24 jurisdiction of this State, including, without limitation, laws of this State relating to land 25 use or environmental matters 26

A The amendments to this Act enacted in 2023 modify the application of the laws of 27 this State with respect to the Penobscot Nation and its Indian territory or trust land to 28 the limited extent that such laws, in the absence of these amendments, would be 29 affected or preempted by the application of the statutes and regulations of the United 30 States that are generally applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to 31 a special status or right of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned 32 by or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians, except as 33 otherwise provided by these amendments 34

B. The amendments to this Act enacted in 2023 confirm, establish and enable, with 35 respect to the Penobscot Nation, the operation, application and implementation in this 36 State of the statutes and regulations of the United States that are generally applicable 37 to Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by or held in 38 trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians, including such statutes 39 and regulations enacted for the benefit of Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of 40 Indians and statutes and regulations that accord a special status or right to or that relate 41 to a special status or right of any Indian, Indian nation, tribe or band of Indians, Indian 42 lands, Indian reservations, Indian country, Indian territory or land or other natural 43 resources held in trust for Indians, except as otherwise provided by these amendments 44

MI'KMAQ NATION

§7301 Federal statutes and regulations

1. Application of statutes and regulations of the United States. Sections 6(h) and 16(b) of United States Public Law 96-420 provide that the laws and regulations of the United States that are generally applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to a special status or right of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians are applicable within this State unless such law or regulation affects or preempts the civil, criminal or regulatory jurisdiction of this State, including, without limitation, laws of this State relating to land use or environmental matters

- A This section modifies the application of the laws of this State with respect to the 11 Mi'kmaq Nation and its Indian territory or trust land to the limited extent that such 12 laws, in the absence of the provisions of this section, would be affected or pieempted 13 by the application of the statutes and regulations of the United States that are generally 14 applicable to or enacted for the benefit of Indians or relate to a special status or right 15 of Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by or held in trust for 16 Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians, except as otherwise provided by 17 this section 18
- B This section confirms, establishes and enables, with respect to the Mi'kmaq Nation 19 and its Indian territory or trust land, the operation, application and implementation in 20 this State of the statutes and regulations of the United States that are generally 21 applicable to Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians or to lands owned by 22 or held in trust for Indians, Indian nations or tribes or bands of Indians, including such 23 statutes and regulations enacted for the benefit of Indians, Indian nations or tribes or 24 bands of Indians and statutes and regulations that accord a special status or right to or 25 that relate to a special status or right of any Indian, Indian nation, tribe or band of 26 Indians, Indian lands, Indian reservations, Indian country, Indian territory or land or 27 other natural resources held in trust for Indians, except as otherwise provided by this 28 29 section
 - C This section does not
 - (1) Extend the general body of federal common law known as federal Indian law to the Mi'kmaq Nation and its Indian territory or trust land; or
 - (2) Adjust the jurisdictional relationship set forth in United States Public Law 102-171 between this State and the Mi'kmaq Nation except as provided by this section

2. Federal statutes and regulations apply Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the State and the Mi'kmaq Nation agree and intend pursuant to United States Public Law 102-171 that
