20 of credit, and any other permissible investments held in trust for the benefit of the 21 purchasers and holders of the licensee's outstanding money transmission obligations, are 22 deemed held in trust for the benefit of such purchasers and holders on a pro rata and 23 equitable basis in accordance with statutes pursuant to which permissible investments are 24 required to be held in this State, and other states, as applicable. A statutory trust established

16                  insolvency of the licensee; or

17                  (iv) The beneficiary has received notice of expiration or nonextension of 22                  (4) The administrator may designate an agent to serve on the administrator's behalf 23                  as beneficiary to a letter of credit as long as the agent and letter of credit meet

34          authorized delegate's provision of money transmission, the magnitude of the loss, the 35          gravity of the violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act and the 36          previous conduct of the authorized delegate.

37          3. Relief. An authorized delegate may apply for relief from a suspension or revocation

27 been violated. A consent agreement may be entered into only with the consent of the 28 applicant, licensee or registrant; the administrator; and the Attorney General. A remedy,

30 Superior Court, may be achieved by consent agreement, including long-term suspension 31 and permanent revocation of a license and revocation of a designation of an authorized 32 delegate. A consent agreement is not subject to review or appeal and may be modified only 33 by a writing executed by all parties to the original consent agreement. A consent agreement
34 is enforceable by an action in Superior Court.
