18 assisting another to do so, if the securities of the issuer held by the purchaser, the 19 members of the purchaser's immediate family and the purchaser's accomplices in a 32 trafficked person and that arise out of conduct that constitutes racketeering.

33 §1133. Criminal penalties

34 1. Penalty. Except as provided in this subsection, a person convicted of violating 35 section 1132 commits a Class A crime for which a term of imprisonment of not more than 36 20 years or, notwithstanding sections 1704 and 1705, a fine of not more than $1,000,000, 37 or both, may be imposed. A person convicted of violating section 1132 when at least one 38 of the criminal acts in the pattern of criminal activity is a violation of section 1105-A 39 involving the making, creating or manufacturing of scheduled drugs as described in section 40 1101, subsection 17, paragraph A commits a Class A crime for which a term of

1 2. Fine. In lieu of the fine authorized by subsection 1, a person convicted of violating 2 section 1132, who received economic gain from the act or caused economic loss or personal 3 injury during the act, may be sentenced to pay a fine calculated under this subsection. The 4 maximum fine is 3 times the gross economic gain or 3 times the gross economic loss, 5 whichever is greater, plus court costs and the costs of investigation and prosecution
6 reasonably incurred, less the value of any property forfeited under section 1134. The court 7 shall hold a hearing to determine the amount of the fine authorized by this subsection. In 8 imposing a fine, the court shall consider the seriousness of the conduct, whether the amount 9 of the fine is disproportionate to the conduct in which the person engaged, the impact of 10 the conduct on victims and any legitimate enterprise involved in that conduct, as well as 11 the economic circumstances of the convicted person, including the effect of the imposition 12 of the fine on the person's immediate family. For purposes of this subsection, "loss" does 13 not include pain and suffering.

14 3. Injunctive relief. After the entry of a judgment that includes a fine under this section 15 or an order of criminal forfeiture under section 1134, the court may enter a restraining order 16 or injunction, require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond or take other action, 17 including the appointment of a receiver, that the court considers proper to protect the 18 interests of the prosecuting authority in collecting the money or forfeiture or the interests 19 of an innocent party.

20 4. Disposition of fine proceeds. The court shall apply fines collected under this section 21 to the costs and expenses of investigation and prosecution, including costs of resources and 22 personnel reasonably incurred in investigation and prosecution, and the balance, if any, 23 must be deposited in the General Fund.

25 this section, the prosecuting authority shall vigorously advocate full restitution to an 26 aggrieved person. Before the acceptance of a plea or after a verdict but before the 27 imposition of a sentence under this section, the court must ensure that full restitution has 28 been duly effected or that a satisfactory explanation of why full restitution is impractical 29 has been made to the court.

30 §1134. Criminal forfeiture

31 1. Forfeiture. When a person is convicted of violating section 1132, the court may 32 order the person to forfeit to the prosecuting authority any real property or personal 33 property subject to forfeiture under this section. Property subject to forfeiture is real 34 property and personal property that was used in the course of, intended for use in the course 35 of, derived from or realized through conduct in violation of section 1132. A court may not 36 order the forfeiture of property that has been used to pay reasonable attorney's fees in 37 connection with a criminal proceeding under section 1132. For the purposes of this section, 38 "property" includes property constituting an interest in or means of control or influence 39 over the enterprise involved in the violation of section 1132 and any property constituting 40 proceeds derived from the violation of section 1132, including:

41 A. A position, office, appointment, tenure, commission or employment contract:

42 (1) That was acquired or maintained in violation of section 1132;

43 (2) Through which the person conducted or participated in the conduct of the 44 affairs of an enterprise in violation of section 1132; or

1 (3) That afforded the person a source of influence or control over the affairs of an 2 enterprise that the person exercised in violation of section 1132;

3 B. Any compensation, right or benefit derived from a position, office, appointment, 4 tenure, commission or employment contract described in paragraph A that accrued to 5 the person during the period of conduct in violation of section 1132;

6 C. Any interest in an enterprise, any security of an enterprise, any claim against an 7 enterprise or a property or contractual right affording the person a source of influence 8 or control over the affairs of an enterprise that the person exercised in violation of 9 section 1132; and

10 D. Any amount payable or paid under any contract for goods or services that was 11 awarded or performed in violation of section 1132.

12 2. Other property of defendant. The court may order criminal forfeiture of any 13 property other than property described under subsection 1 of the defendant up to the value 14 of the property that is unreachable if any property subject to criminal forfeiture under 15 subsection 1:

16 A. Cannot be located;

17 B. Has been sold to a bona fide purchaser for value;

18 C. Has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

19 D. Has been substantially diminished in value by the conduct of the defendant;

20 E. Has been commingled with other property that cannot be divided without difficulty 21 or undue injury to innocent persons; or

22 F. Is otherwise unreachable without undue injury to an innocent person.

23 §1135. Preservation of property subject to forfeiture

24 1. Temporary restraining order. When an indictment or complaint is filed under 25 section 1132, the court may take any of the following actions if the prosecuting authority 26 shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the action is necessary to preserve the 27 reachability of property subject to criminal forfeiture:

28 A. Enter a restraining order or injunction;

29 B. Require the execution of a satisfactory performance bond; or 30 C. Take any other reasonable action, including the appointment of a receiver.

31 Before granting the remedies provided by this subsection, the court shall hold a hearing, 32 after notice to all affected persons, giving them a reasonable opportunity to respond. At the 33 hearing, the rules of evidence do not apply.

34 2. Preindictment order. The following provisions govern preindictment orders.

35 A. If an indictment or complaint has not been filed, the court may take actions provided 36 in subsection 1 if the prosecuting authority makes the showing required by subsection 37 1 and also shows that:

38 (1) There is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the 39 order is sought would, in the event of a conviction, be subject to criminal forfeiture 40 under section 1134; and

1 (2) The requested order would not result in substantial and irreparable harm or 2 injury to the party against whom the order is to be entered, or to other affected 3 persons, that outweighs the need to preserve the reachability of the property.

4 B. An order entered under this subsection is effective for a maximum of 90 days unless:

5 (1) Extended by the court for good cause; or 6 (2) Terminated by the filing of an indictment or complaint alleging that the 7 property is subject to forfeiture.

8 3. Restraining order without notice. On application by the prosecuting authority, the 9 court may grant, without notice to any party, a temporary restraining order to preserve the 10 reachability of property subject to criminal forfeiture under section 1134 if:

11 A. An indictment or complaint alleging that property is subject to criminal forfeiture 12 has been filed or the court determines that there is probable cause to believe that 13 property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of a conviction, 14 be subject to criminal forfeiture under section 1134;

15 B. The property is in the possession or control of the party against whom the order is 16 to be entered; and 17 C. The court makes a specific finding in writing that the property can be concealed, 18 disposed of or placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court before any party may be 19 heard in opposition.

20 A temporary restraining order granted without notice to any party under this subsection 21 expires within the time fixed by the court, not to exceed 10 days. The court may extend the 22 order for good cause shown or if the party against whom it is entered consents to an 23 extension. After a temporary restraining order is granted under this subsection, a hearing 24 concerning the entry of an order under this section must be held at the earliest practicable 25 time and before the temporary order expires.

26 §1136. Disposition of forfeiture proceeds

27 1. Disposition alternatives. Except as provided in subsection 2, after making due 28 provisions for the rights of innocent persons, the prosecuting authority shall, as soon as 29 feasible, dispose of all property ordered forfeited under section 1134 by:

30 A. Public sale;

31 B. Sale or transfer to an innocent person; or 32 C. Destruction, if the property is not needed for evidence in a pending criminal or civil 33 proceeding.

34 2. Transfer to Maine State Housing Authority. The prosecuting authority shall, as 35 soon as feasible, transfer real property ordered forfeited under section 1134 and suitable 36 for residential use to the Maine State Housing Authority.

37 3. No reversion to defendant. For the purposes of this section, an interest in personal 38 property or real property not exercisable by or transferable for value by the prosecuting 39 authority expires and does not revert to the defendant. Forfeited property may not be 40 purchased by the defendant, a relative of the defendant or any person acting in concert with 41 the defendant or on the defendant's behalf.

1 4. Sale proceeds. The proceeds of a sale or other disposition of forfeited property under 2 this section, whether by final judgment, settlement or otherwise, must be applied as 3 follows:

4 A. To the fees and costs of the forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, 5 maintenance and custody of the property pending its disposition, advertising and court 6 costs; and

7 B. The balance to the Maine State Housing Authority to be used by the authority to pay 8 taxes, fees and liens associated with real property transferred to the authority pursuant 9 to subsection 2 and rehabilitate that real property into livable residential real property 10 for resale.

11 §1137. Additional relief available

12 With respect to property ordered forfeited, a fine imposed or a civil penalty imposed 13 in a criminal proceeding under section 1132 or civil proceeding under section 1139, the 14 court may, on petition of the prosecuting authority or any other person within 60 days of a 15 final order:

16 1. Authorize compromise. Authorize the compromise of claims;

17 2. Award compensation. Award compensation to persons providing information that 18 results in a forfeiture under section 1134;

19 3. Grant petition. Grant a petition for mitigation or remission of a forfeiture or fine;

20 4. Restore forfeited property or award imposed fines. Restore forfeited property or 21 award imposed fines to victims of a violation of section 1132; and 22 5. Take any other action. Take any other action to protect the rights of innocent 23 persons that is in the interests of justice and is consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

24 §1138. Relation to other sanctions

25 1. Remedy not exclusive. Except as provided in this section, a criminal penalty, 26 forfeiture or fine imposed under section 1132, 1133, 1134 or 1139 does not preclude the 27 application of any other criminal penalty or civil remedy for the separate criminal acts. A 28 prosecuting authority may not file a civil action under section 1139 if any prosecuting 29 authority has filed a previous criminal proceeding under section 1132 against the same 30 person based on the same criminal conduct and the charges were dismissed after jeopardy 31 attached or the person was acquitted.

32 2. Restitution. A restitution payment to a victim under section 1133 does not limit 33 liability for damages in a civil action or proceeding for an amount greater than the 34 restitution payment.

35 §1139. Civil remedies

36 1. Relief available. The prosecuting authority may institute civil proceedings in court 37 seeking relief from conduct constituting a violation of section 1132 or to prevent or restrain 38 future violations. If the prosecuting authority proves the alleged violation by a 39 preponderance of the evidence, and the court has made due provision for the rights of 40 innocent persons, the court may:

41 A. Order a defendant to divest an interest in an enterprise or in real property;

1 B. Impose reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of a defendant, 2 including prohibiting a defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the 3 enterprise in which the defendant was engaged in violation of section 1132;

4 C. Order the dissolution or reorganization of an enterprise;

5 D. Order the suspension or revocation of a license, permit or prior approval granted to 6 an enterprise by a state agency; or

7 E. Order the surrender of the charter of a corporation organized under the law of this 8 State, the dissolution of an enterprise or the revocation of the authority for a foreign 9 corporation to conduct business in this State if the court finds that:

10 (1) The board of directors or a managerial agent acting on behalf of the corporation, 11 in conducting the affairs of the corporation, authorized or engaged in conduct 12 constituting a violation of section 1132; and 13 (2) The public interest in preventing future criminal conduct requires the action.

14 2. Injunctive relief. In a proceeding under this section, the court may grant injunctive 15 relief.

16 3. Civil penalty. The prosecuting authority may institute proceedings against an 17 enterprise or an individual to recover a civil penalty. The penalty may be imposed in the 18 discretion of the court for conduct constituting a violation of section 1132. The civil penalty 19 may not exceed $1,000,000 less a fine imposed under section 1133. Penalties collected 20 under this section must be paid to the State and applied to the costs and expenses of 21 investigation and prosecution, including costs of resources and personnel incurred in 22 investigation and prosecution, and the balance, if any, must be deposited in the General 23 Fund.

24 4. Attorney's fees. If the court issues an injunction or grants other relief under this 25 section, or the prosecuting authority otherwise substantially prevails, the prosecuting 26 authority must also recover reasonable attorney's fees in the trial and appellate courts and 27 costs of investigation and litigation reasonably incurred.

28 5. Personal jurisdiction. Personal service of process in a proceeding under this section 29 may be made on any person outside of this State if the person was a principal in any conduct 30 constituting a violation of section 1132 in this State. The person is deemed to have 31 submitted to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State for the purposes of this section.

32 §1140. Notice to other prosecuting authorities

33 When a prosecuting authority or law enforcement agency begins an investigation, files 34 a charge or makes an arrest involving this chapter, the prosecuting authority or law 35 enforcement agency shall notify the Department of the Attorney General. An office of a 36 district attorney or a law enforcement agency is not required to obtain the permission of the 37 Attorney General to conduct an investigation, file a charge or make an arrest involving this 38 chapter. The Attorney General shall notify all prosecuting authorities and law enforcement 39 agencies that are conducting investigations, filing charges or making arrests involving this 40 chapter, the same actors and the same acts. The Attorney General shall designate the 41 prosecuting authority or law enforcement agency that first filed notice of an investigation 42 involving this chapter, the same actors and the same acts as the exclusive prosecuting

1 authority or law enforcement agency for the matter under investigation if that prosecuting 2 authority or law enforcement agency requests that designation.

3 §1141. Personal property and real property

4 For purposes of this chapter:

5 1. Personal property. Personal property and a beneficial interest in personal property 6 are deemed to be located where the trustee is, the personal property is or the instrument 7 evidencing the right is; and 8 2. Real property. A beneficial interest in real property is deemed to be located where 9 the real property is located.

10 Sec. 2. 30-A MRSA §4173, sub-§6 is enacted to read:

11 6. Permit required. A permit is required for the installation or upgrade of electrical 12 service to a total of 400 amperes or more in a residential building. The ampere ratings of 13 all electrical panels must be added together to determine whether the 400-ampere threshold
14 in this subsection is met. If the residential building is in a municipality that has provided 15 for electrical inspections, the person performing the work must apply to the municipal 16 electrical inspector in writing for a permit. If the residential building is not in a municipality 17 that has provided for electrical inspections, the person performing the work must apply to 18 a state electrical inspector in writing for a permit. A municipal electrical inspector or state 19 electrical inspector shall notify the transmission and distribution utility that serves the 20 residential building of an application made under this subsection.

21 Sec. 3. 33 MRSA §451 is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

22 §451. Rights of aliens

23 1. Alien may take, hold, convey and devise real estate. Except as provided in 24 subsection 2, an alien may take, hold, convey and devise real estate or any interest therein.
25 All conveyances and devises of real estate or interest already made by or to an alien are 26 valid.

27 2. Certain aliens may not purchase or otherwise acquire real estate. An alien, 28 except an alien who is a legal permanent resident of the United States, who is a citizen of

 3 this section and transmit that report to the Department of Public Safety, Maine State 4 Police when:

5 (1) A 400 ampere or more total service is installed or an existing service is 6 upgraded to a 400 ampere or more total service at a residential property, regardless 7 of whether that installation or upgrade is a single 400 ampere or more panel or 8 multiple smaller panels the sum of which is 400 amperes or more;

9 (2) A transformer malfunctions;

10 (3) A transformer larger than 25 kilovolt-amperes is installed or a transformer is 11 upgraded to a transformer larger than 25 kilovolt-amperes for a residential 12 customer; or

 24 Police.

25 SUMMARY

26 This bill establishes the crime of racketeering and provides that a person is guilty of 27 racketeering if the person is employed by or associated with an enterprise and intentionally 28 conducts or participates in the affairs of the enterprise by participating in a pattern of 29 criminal activity; acquires or maintains an interest in or control of an enterprise, or an 30 interest in real property, by participating in a pattern of criminal activity; or participates in 31 a pattern of criminal activity and knowingly invests any proceeds derived from that 32 conduct, or any proceeds derived from the investment or use of those proceeds, in an 33 enterprise or in real property. The bill defines "criminal act" as conduct constituting, or a 34 conspiracy or attempt to commit, a violation punishable by imprisonment for one year or 35 more of the criminal laws governing scheduled drugs. The definition of "criminal act" 36 includes violations of the laws governing the aggravated trafficking of scheduled drugs that 37 involve the making, creating or manufacturing of scheduled drugs. It is an affirmative 38 defense to a prosecution for racketeering that the person engaged in racketeering because 39 the person is a trafficked person. A person guilty of racketeering commits a Class A crime 40 for which a term of imprisonment of not more than 20 years or a fine of not more than 41 $1,000,000, or both, may be imposed. A person guilty of racketeering when at least one of 42 the criminal acts in the pattern of criminal activity is aggravated trafficking of scheduled 43 drugs involving the making, creating or manufacturing of scheduled drugs commits a Class 44 A crime for which a term of imprisonment of not more than 30 years or a fine of not more

1 than $1,000,000, or both, may be imposed. In lieu of these fines, a person guilty of 2 racketeering who received economic gain from the act or caused economic loss or personal 3 injury during the act may be sentenced to pay a fine that is no greater than 3 times the gross 4 economic value gained or 3 times the gross economic loss caused, whichever is greater, 5 plus court costs and the costs of investigation and prosecution reasonably incurred, less the 6 value of any property forfeited.

7 The bill provides that when a person is convicted of racketeering, the court may order 8 the person to forfeit to the prosecuting authority any real or personal property that was used 9 in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from or realized through conduct 10 in violation of the racketeering laws. The prosecuting authority must transfer real property 11 ordered forfeited and suitable for residential use to the Maine State Housing Authority. The 12 proceeds of a sale or other disposition of forfeited property must be applied to the fees and 13 costs of the forfeiture and sale and the balance must be transferred to the Maine State 14 Housing Authority to be used by the authority to pay taxes, fees and liens associated with 15 real property transferred to the authority as a result of forfeiture and to rehabilitate that real 16 property into livable residential real property for resale.

17 The bill provides that the prosecuting authority may institute civil proceedings in court 18 seeking relief from conduct constituting a violation of the laws governing racketeering or 19 to prevent or restrain future violations.

20 The bill provides that when a prosecuting authority or law enforcement agency begins 21 an investigation, files a charge or makes an arrest involving the laws governing 22 racketeering, the prosecuting authority or law enforcement agency must notify the 23 Department of the Attorney General. An office of a district attorney or a law enforcement 24 agency is not required to obtain the permission of the Attorney General to conduct an 25 investigation, file a charge or make an arrest. The Attorney General must notify all 26 prosecuting authorities and law enforcement agencies that are conducting investigations, 27 filing charges or making arrests involving the laws governing racketeering, the same actors 28 and the same acts. The Attorney General must designate the prosecuting authority or law 29 enforcement agency that first filed notice of an investigation involving the laws governing
