1-B. Investigation of allegation of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment by county jail employee. Notwithstanding subsection 1, paragraph B, subparagraph (5), in the case of an allegation of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment within a county jail or detention facility, a determination that the allegation was substantiated, unsubstantiated or unfounded may be disclosed to the alleged victim. Unless the allegation is determined to be unfounded, the following information may also be shared with the alleged victim:

- A. Whether the individual alleged to have engaged in the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment is still assigned to the same work location where the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment allegedly occurred;
- B. Whether the individual under paragraph A is still employed at the county jail or detention facility;
- C. Whether the individual under paragraph A has been criminally charged or convicted of a crime arising out of the allegation of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment; and
- D. Whether the prosecuting agency declined to indict the individual under paragraph A based on the allegation of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment.'

Amend the bill by relettering or renumbering any nonconsecutive Part letter or section number to read consecutively.

SUMMARY

This amendment removes the provision of the bill that would have authorized the Department of Corrections to disclose to an alleged victim of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment within a correctional facility information about any subsequent work locations of the individual alleged to have engaged in the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment. The amendment instead authorizes the department to disclose to the alleged victim information regarding whether the individual alleged to have engaged in the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment is still assigned to the same work location where the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment allegedly occurred.

The amendment also amends the statutory confidentiality provisions related to personnel records of county employees to allow an alleged victim of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment in a county jail or detention facility to receive the same information about the individual alleged to have engaged in the sexual misconduct or sexual harassment that an alleged victim of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment in a correctional facility may receive under the provisions of the bill as amended.
