

FORTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE.

No. 127.

TABLE explanatory of Section Six of the Assumption Act, showing how much money will be lost to the State by assumption on the basis of $200 per man.

The sums opposite the names of the towns show the excess to be received by them over their expenditures, which sums must, under the provisions of the act, be paid out to the enlisted men of the towns named.
