FORTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE.

---

HOUSE.

No. 60.

---

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

---

The Committee on State Lands and State Roads having duly considered the situation of the road from Presque Isle to Ashland, think that the interest of the State and the wants of the people, as set forth in their petition, demand that the resolve appropriating the sum of five hundred dollars on said road ought to pass. As the road is but partially completed, the wants of the settlers and the convenience of the public require that it should be completed at an early day.

Per order.

A. B. CHASE.
