FIFTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

No. 17.

STATE OF MAINE.

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO.

AN ACT to secure a lien on brick.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECTION 1. Any person who performs or furnishes
2 labor or wood for manufacturing and burning bricks,
3 shall have a lien on such bricks for such labor and wood,
4 to take precedence of all other claims, and to continue
5 in force thirty days after the same are burned suitable
6 for use, provided said bricks remain in the yard
7 where burnt, and to be enforced by attachment within 8 that time, which shall have precedence of all attach-
9 ments and incumbrances not made to secure a similar
10 lien, and such suit may be maintained though the em-
11 ployer or debtor is dead, and his estate rendered in-
12 solvent, and in that case his executor or administrator

13 may be summoned to answer thereto, and judgment
14 rendered as in other cases against executors and ad-
15 ministrators, and execution issued and enforced to sat-
16 isfy such lien.

SECT. 2. This act is in force when approved.

STATE OF MAINE.

IN SENATE, January 30, 1872.

Reported from Committee on Legal Reform, by Mr. CHAPLIN of Cumberland, and laid over to be printed under the Rules.

SAMUEL W. LANE, Secretary.
