STATEMENT OF FACTS.

A resolve was passed in 1874, appropriating land in Silver Ridge plantation for the purpose of building a bridge over Molunkus stream. The land was sold for seven hundred dollars, the bridge was built at a cost of five hundred thirty-four dollars and twenty-five cents; the balance was paid into the treasury, being one hundred sixty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, the exact amount asked for in the resolve. One mile of road is to be made from the bridge above named, to the Kingman road, through Greenwood; and this appropriation is needed very much to aid the citizens in opening the said road.
