Fifty-Seventh Legislature.

HOUSE.

No. 57.

STATE OF MAINE.

RESOLVE to revive and put in force a resolve, chapter fifty-eight, eighteen hundred sixty-nine, abating certain plantation taxes.

Resolved, That the treasurer of state is hereby 2 directed to carry out the true and equitable meaning
3 of a resolve, chapter fifty-eight of the resolves passed
4 and approved March six, eighteen hundred sixty-nine,
5 abating state taxes on the plantations of Grant Isle,
6 Dion, D'Aigle and Fort Kent, by allowing the amount 7 of ninety-two dollars and forty-eight cents on the 8 taxes of the town of Grant Isle, assessed in eighteen
9 hundred seventy-seven, and the sum of twenty-one 10 dollars and twenty-six cents, and a further sum of 11 thirty-five dollars and fifty-two cents, which two last 12 named sums, amounting to fifty-six dollars and seventy-13 eight cents, should have been abated as per resolve

14 aforesaid to D'Aigle and Fort Kent plantations; and 15 the whole amount of the taxes having been paid, said
16 last named sum is to be allowed to the town of Fort
17 Kent, by the treasurer, on their taxes for eighteen 18 hundred seventy-seven, and the several sums are 19 hereby appropriated.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

A Resolve was passed, Chapter 58, 1869, abating certain State taxes on plantations of Grant Isle, Dion, D'Aigle and Fort Kent, which has not been allowed to Grant Isle, because the money to pay the balance of said tax was not received and credited to said plantation until February the 15th; but the Collector avers that it was sent in season, as he thought, to secure the abatement which should have been the first day of February, 1870. Dion, the balance was received and abatement allowed; D'Aigle became a part of the town of Fort Kent. The town of Fort Kent sent the money to pay the balance of the plantations taxed, and as they believed balance on the D'Aigle plantation's tax, including the abatement. But the abatement was not allowed; probably an oversight as to Fort Kent, but as the town of Fort Kent paid the taxes of D'Aigle it is believed equitable the town should be allowed the abatement made to both plantations, to wit, fifty-six and seventy-eight cents.
