FIFTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

No. 62.

STATE OF MAINE.

RESOLVE in favor of Edmund D. Wiggin.

Resolved, That the sum of seven hundred twenty-
2 six dollars and twenty-four cents be and is hereby
3 appropriated for the payment of the claim of Ed-
4 mund D. Wiggin, employed by the attorney gen-
5 eral in eighteen hundred and seventy-eight as de-
6 tective in the case wherein Mr. J. Wilson Barron,
7 treasurer of the Dexter savings bank lost his life.
8 And the said sum shall be in full for all claims of
9 said Wiggin against the state for services growing
10 out of the said transaction.

STATE OF MAINE.

In COUNCIL, March 3, 1880.

The Standing Committee on Accounts, to which was referred the claim of E. D. Wiggin, for services and expenses as detective, under the appointment of Attorney General Emery, in matter of alleged robbery of the Dexter Savings Bank and murder of the Cashier, Barron, under Resolve of the Legislature, chapter 148, 1879, approved March 3, 1879:

REPORT, That of the whole sum claimed, viz. $3,435.39, they find due said Wiggin the sum of $1,726.24 from the State, of which sum one thousand dollars by assignment of said Wiggin, on file in this case, is to be paid to the Dexter Savings Bank, and the balance, $726.24, to said Wiggin, and that separate warrants should be drawn for each of said sums to the parties entitled to it, which sums are to be in full for all claims against the State growing out of said transaction in favor of said bank, or of said Wiggin; and recommend separate appropriations therefor.

Which is respectfully submitted.

LEWIS BARKER, Chairman.

In COUNCIL, March 3, 1880.

Read and accepted by the Council, and by the Governor approved.
