STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The town of Kingsbury has a population of 198, a resident valuation of twelve thousand dollars. Ten years ago a family of state paupers of thirteen, moved into town. To support schools and to defray necessary town expenses the past ten years, the assessment has been three per cent. ; to have been obliged to have supported the state paupers an assessment of seven per cent. would had to have been made each year, which the people could not possibly pay.
