Sixty-Fourth Legislature.

SENATE.

No. 44.

STATE OF MAINE.

The Joint Select Committee appointed to negotiate with some suitable person or persons to do the State printing and binding for the years 1889 and 1890 have attended to the duty assigned them, and report that they have contracted with Burleigh & Flynt of Augusta, to do said printing, and with Smith & Reid of Augusta, to do said binding, in accordance with terms of contract which have been duly executed by said Burleigh & Flynt, Smith & Reid, and by said committee on behalf of said State, and which are hereto annexed the rates specified in said contract being substantially the same as those for the years 1887 and 1888. Contracts not to take effect till approved by the legislature.

RYDER,

for Committee.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT,

Made this twenty-ninth day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-nine :

These articles of agreement made by and between Clarence B. Burleigh and Charles F. Flynt, co-partners and doing business under the firm name and style of Burleigh & Flynt, of the first part, and the State of Maine through its agents, the Joint Special Committee on Printing and Binding, acting in pursuance of authority in them vested, of the second part, witnesseth :

That the said party of the first part, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, hereby covenants and agrees to and with said party of the second part, to execute and perform in a prompt, proper, substantial, faithful and workmanlike manner, the printing for the State of Maine for the political years eighteen hundred and eighty-nine and eighteen hundred and ninety, beginning on the twenty-ninth day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and until a new contract is made and executed by the legislature, at the following rates, viz. :

For composition, plain, forty-two cents per thousand ems, and ninety cents for rule and figure and tabular work.

For press work, per token of two hundred and fifty sheets of book work, with sixteen pages of octavo, or twenty-four pages of duodecimo, printed on each side, ninety cents ; but any excess of a token shall be charged pro rata.

For blanks, for composition for space actually covered, forty-eight cents per thousand ems for plain, and double that price for rule and figure and tabular work, but no blank shall be reckoned less than one thousand.

For press work not otherwise provided for in the preceding section, seventy-five cents per token, but every excess of a token shall be charged pro rata.

The price for making alterations in forms of type, different from the copy furnished, after the type has been set by the printers in accordance with copy, shall be at the rate of thirty cents per hour.

It is understood that the copy furnished the printers shall be legibly written and properly prepared. Printed sheets of book work shall be delivered promptly into the hands of the binders to the State, and after such delivery the responsibility of the printers for such printed sheets shall cease.

Paper shall be furnished at the market price, after adding thereto the cost of transportation, interest, insurance, storage and waste.

And in consideration of the aforementioned covenants and agreements on the part of said party of the first part, the undersigned, Joint Special Committee on Printing and Binding, as agents of the said party of the second part, by virtue of and in pursuance of authority in them vested, in behalf of said State, hereby covenant and agree with said party of the first part, that in consideration of their performance of the service and work before specified, for said State, said party of the first part shall receive from said State as compensation therefor, the amount which may be due according to the aforementioned prices. It is also understood and agreed that the accounts of said Burleigh & Flynt, the party of the first part, shall be presented and paid quarterly, if desired by either party, and that this contract shall go into full force and effect when approved by the legislature. It is likewise understood and agreed that said Burleigh & Flynt are to perform all the printing authorized by or pertaining to the sixty-fourth (64th) legislature, including all the printing for the different departments of the State government, all the reports of all State and legislative officers and commissioners for the years eighteen hundred and eighty-nine and eighteen hundred and ninety, and that said Burleigh & Flynt shall complete all work on which any beginning shall have been made, for which the State shall be held to pay, excepting the printing of the Revised Statutes, and the Reports of Decisions.
