STATEMENT OF FACTS TO ACCOMPANY HOUSE DOCUMENT No. 44.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:

The undersigned, municipal officers of the town of Bradford, respectfully represent that, owing to failure to receive the blanks therefor, the fiscal returns of said town for the year ending April 1, 1892, were not made to the office of the State Superintendent of Schools within the time required by law; that in consequence thereof said town received on account of school fund $74.14 less than would have otherwise been received for the current school year: They therefore respectfully petition that the amount so lost may be restored to said town by such legislation as may be necessary therefor.
